Nasser and Khrushchev Discuss Mideast Situation

UN COUNCIL HEARS STORY OF THREATS

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United Arab Republic said today the United States had threatened it with direct action if U. S. Marines in Lebanon are attacked by troops under U.A.R. control.

Ambassador Omar Loutfi, the U.A.R. delegate, said the threat was made earlier this week by U. S. Ambassador Raymond Hare in Cairo. He said Hare had declared the Marines would reply if they are attacked.

Loutfi spoke as the U. N. Security Council neared a vote on a series of proposals for action in the Middle East crisis. Just as a vote appeared imminent, the Council adjourned until 3:30 p. m.

Three resolutions to deal with the crisis seemed headed for oblivion in the day's Council session. Indications were that once the 11-nation Council had failed to agree on any action, either the United States or the Soviet Union would ask for a special session and the 11-nation Assembly would meet in a few days.

The Soviet Union was pushing a resolution to demand immediate withdrawal of the U. S. Marines that went into Lebanon Tuesday and the British paratroopers who landed in Jordan Thursday. The Council was expected to vote this down.

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev told the Council Thursday that if it was "paralyzed in its action" on his proposal, he would ask for an emergency special Assembly session.

The United States was sponsoring a resolution that would send a U. N. force to Lebanon to take over from the Marines as a backdrop for President Camille Chamoun's government. Chamoun charges President Nasser's United Arab Republic is aiding the rebel forces seeking to oust him.

Sobolev was expected to veto the U. S. resolution. U. S. sources said that the United States then would like to have its resolution taken up in the Assembly.

Swedish Delegate Gunnar V. Jarring introduced the third pending resolution. It would suspend until further notice the activities of U. N. observers the Council sent to Lebanon June 11 to insure against aid to the rebels from the U. A. R. Jarring argued that the U. S. landing had made the presence of the observers "from a tactical point of view superfluous and from a political point of view undesirable." His resolution was expected to get only two votes—his and Sobolev's.

Ousted Commander in Jordan at Milan, Italy

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Sir John B. Glubb, ousted commander of Jordan's Arab Legion, said today that "petty jealousy between Britain and the United States in the Middle East weakened the position of the two powers" in that area.

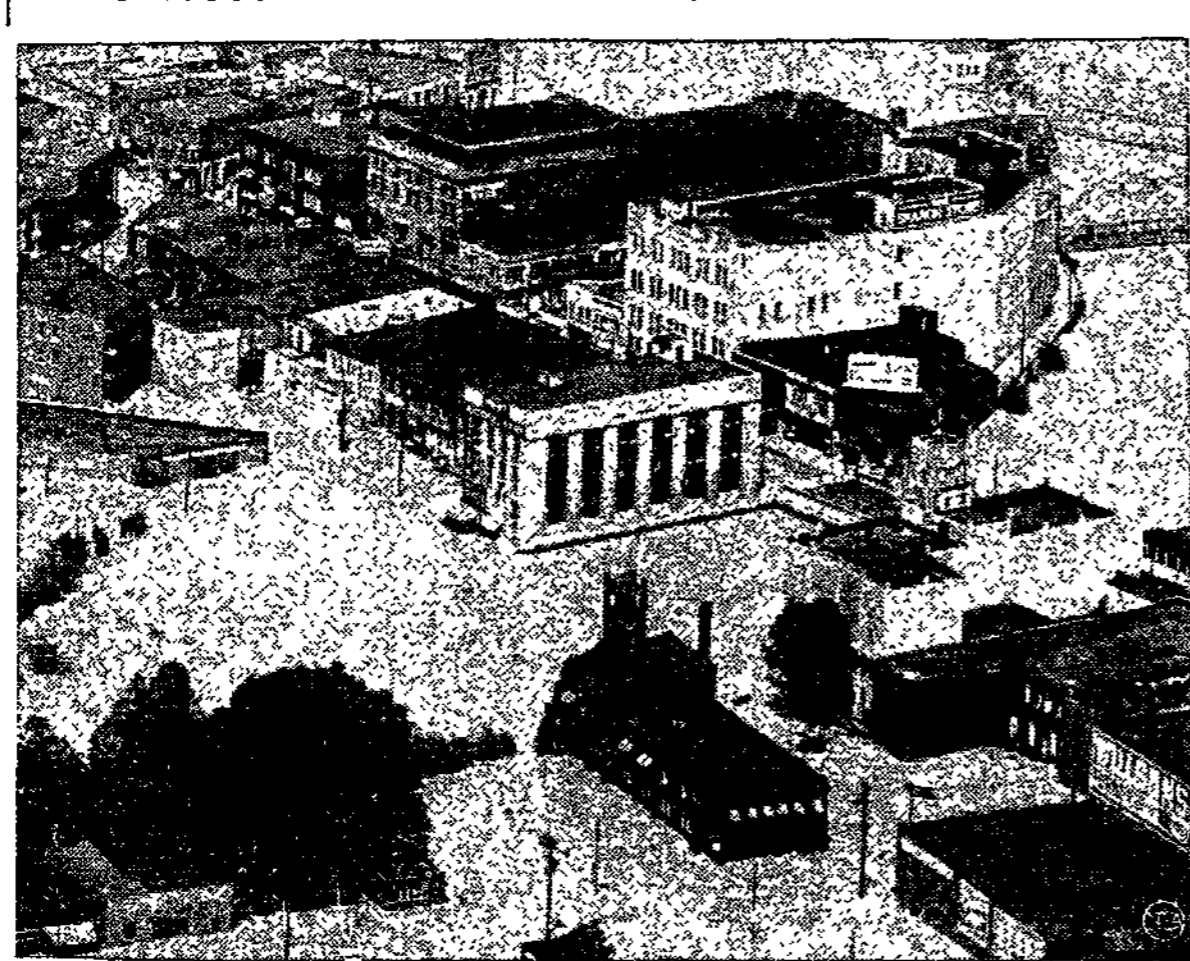

In an interview he added: "The West should determine that its scope in the East is only to promote mutually advantageous economic relations . . . (and should determine) that the West does not want to oppose nationalism and the progress of the Arab people but wants to offer every possible assistance to them."

Jersey Shoe Shiner Loses Life in Automobile Crash

BORDENTOWN, N. J. (AP)—Everybody knew little Eddie O'Neil Rodgers, the crippled kid who thumped about on crutches swinging his braced legs before him.

He'd been shining shoes since he was able, a little hunchbacked 13-year-old, hopping here and there in search of customers.

Aerial View of Flooded Sharon

Aerial view of downtown Sharon, Pa., shows flooded streets and properties as a state of emergency was declared in the city. The Shenango River and its tributaries went over their banks in the wake of torrential rains, causing flood waters to rise to their highest point since 1913. (NEA Telephoto).

Senate Leaders Urge Passage of Ike's Trade Bill

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders pushed for passage of the reciprocal trade extension bill today. But first they expected to knock out a key provision curbing President Eisenhower's powers.

The chances of getting a final vote by tonight appeared to rest largely with Sen. George W. Malone (R-Nev.), a longtime foe of the trade program.

Malone was ready with a speech which some senators said they understood might run many hours.

The decisive vote was to come on an amendment offered by the two Senate leader and four other senators. It would strike from the bill a provision inserted in the Finance Committee by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.).

The Kerr provision is heavily opposed by the administration. It would end powers the President now has to override a recommendation of the Tariff Commission for relief to an industry claiming damage from imports, and often does so.

The House-passed extension bill, in a provision accepted by Eisenhower, gives Congress the right to veto a presidential decision against the commission.

Shenango River Rampage Arouses Demand For a Dam

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—The danger of more flooding from the rain-swollen Shenango River has passed, reports Vernon Houghton, chief river forecaster for the U. S. Weather Bureau in Pittsburgh.

And residents of the Shenango Valley expressed hope that one of the worst floods in years would underscore the need for a proposed flood control dam at Sharpville north of Sharon.

The rampaging Shenango, fed by heavy rains early in the week, spilled over first at Greenville in Northern Mercer County Tuesday and at Sharon the following day. It crested Thursday at New Castle 1 1/2 feet below flood stage.

Houghton, following a tour of the stricken area, said the Beaver River would be able to absorb the excess water without threat of flooding further downstream.

After flying over the Sharon area Thursday, Rep. Carroll Kearns (R-Pa.) said:

"We of this area know that the dam would prevent such floods as this. And now we hope to convince Washington that the dam should be placed high among the flood control projects."

Gov. Leader sent a telegram to the Army Engineers, urging immediate appropriation of funds to design and construct the dam.

A $100,000 allocation for preliminary planning of the dam awaits congressional action. It is contained in a compromise bill.

The flood at Sharon was the worst in 45 years and caused damage estimated unofficially at two to three million dollars. Many families had to evacuate homes in low-lying areas and several industrial plants were threatened.

Wife Mistaken for a Prowler Fatally Shot

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A suburban Kettering man, mistaking his wife for a prowler, shot her fatally early today, police reported.

They said Ada Hayward, 58, died in Miami Valley Hospital at 5 a. m., about an hour and a half after being shot in the breezeway of her home.

Officers said the husband, Robert, 53, told them he was awakened by a noise in the breezeway. When he heard the noise a second time he took a revolver and went to investigate. In the breezeway, he said, he saw a figure moving near a doorway, and fired.

When he turned on the lights, he told police, he saw it was his wife he had shot.

Woman Killed in Crash Outside of Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A tractor-trailer truck and an auto collided today on the Parkway West just outside Pittsburgh, killing Mrs. Yvonne K. Sleight, 25, of Coraopolis.

Police said Mrs. Sleight was returning home from work at the John Kane Hospital in Scott Twp. where she was a nurse.

The driver of the truck, Robert Brendel, 26, of Pittsburgh, was not injured.

Crowds Hoot U.S. Embassy In Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—A crowd of Soviet demonstrators estimated to number up to 100,000 gathered outside the U. S. Embassy today. Some pelted it with ink and projectiles, in the second day of demonstrations against the landing of American Marines in Lebanon. Damage extended all the way to the 5th floor of the 10-story building.

An air rifle pellet penetrated a window in the embassy but no one was hurt.

The unruly crowd filled the street before the embassy with a mass of humanity stretching for half a mile in either direction. Soviet militiamen kept early arrivals under control but made no apparent attempt to control the actions of the crowd as it grew in size.

Six platoons of unarmed Soviet troops and a company of security troops appeared as the crowd swelled before the embassy. The mood of the crowd seemed to be growing increasingly violent as its numbers increased.

The crowd filled the 10-lane boulevard for a distance of half a mile, stretching from Insurrection Square on the left side of the embassy to the skyscraper Soviet Foreign Ministry building on the right.

Soviet employees of the embassy were sent home before the demonstration started. Embassy personnel cleared furniture out of front offices facing the street as a precautionary measure.

Traffic was tied up throughout downtown Moscow. Several streets leading to Insurrection Square were blocked off by Soviet militiamen to clear a traffic-free path for the marching demonstrators.

The columns converged from several directions and were made up of delegations from many Moscow factories and offices.

In Insurrection Square, about 200 yards from the embassy, a wooden platform with loudspeakers had been erected earlier.

As the demonstrators marched, they hooted and chanted anti-American slogans. Military music blared out of the loudspeakers on the platform and occasionally Communist party agitators seized a microphone and roared out anti-American slogans.

No Violence Against Milton at Costa Rica

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, (AP)—The strongest Communist agitation so far awaited Dr. Milton Eisenhower today in Costa Rica on the third stop of his Central American fact-finding tour, but the Communists pledged no violence.

Manuel Mora Valverde, head of the outlawed Communist party of Costa Rica, planned a radio speech tonight on Eisenhower's visit but disclaimed any intention to stage hostile demonstrations.

On his earlier stops in Panama and Honduras the special envoy met with verbal attacks on U. S. policies but nothing like the violence that greeted Vice President Nixon in Peru and Venezuela last May. Observers thought the Communists might be avoiding hostile demonstrations because the attacks on Nixon were widely denounced in Latin America.

New Security Measures In Force at Cuban Base

GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP)—New security measures were in effect today at the big U. S. naval base near here to prevent Cuban rebels from taking advantage of the Navy's preoccupation with the Mideast crisis.

Four servicemen kidnapped by Fidel Castro's rebels on June 27 were returned Thursday. The remaining 14 are expected back within the next few days.

Reinforced guards were posted at the entrances to the base at Guantanamo Bay. The families of all base personnel living in Guantanamo City moved to the base as a precaution against further kidnappings. Special passes were required for trips to town.

CD "TIGHTENS" ITS ORGANIZATION

Middle East saber rattling has brought a "tightening" of the local Civil Defense organization.

Division heads are reviewing personnel lists for possible emergency calls. Visits are planned with industrial leaders to make sure adequate worker shelters are provided.

Also, CD officials reminded persons to: check plans for a cellar water and food supply, tell children to come home on a warning siren, double check adequate protective cover nearby if the home does not have a cellar.

Questioning Of Goldfine Is Concluded

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators, finished with questioning of Bernard Goldfine, indicated today they see no need to recall Sherman Adams to the witness stand.

Rep. John Bell Williams (D-Miss.), a senior Democrat on the special subcommittee, said he didn't think Adams should be summoned back unless a study of his testimony shows major conflict with Goldfine's. He said the conflicts at this point appear to be minor.

Subcommittee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) ventured no predictions but indicated the group will stay in recess for a week or more before calling the next series of witnesses. These are expected to be officials of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The SEC is one of the federal agencies with which Goldfine, millionaire Boston textile manufacturer, had trouble and from which his friend Adams, President Eisenhower's No. 1 assistant, sought information.

Goldfine was finally dismissed Thursday after he denied earlier that he favored federal treatment through his friendship with Adams.

The session was punctuated by repeated partisan bickering and a renewed complaint by Goldfine the subcommittee was out to smear him.

Rep. Charles A. Wolcott (R-N.J.) contended the subcommittee should prove its nonpartisanship by quizzing John R. Steelman, who held Adams' job under President Truman.

Goldfine testified he went to the White House more often when Steelman was there than since Adams came in with Eisenhower in 1953. Goldfine said he contacted Steelman while seeking a 12 1/2-million-dollar loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corp. It fell through. Steelman told a newsman his contacts with Goldfine were above board and occurred in Steelman's role as head of the National Securities Resources Board.

Harris showed a notable coolness to the idea, meanwhile defending the inquiry as nonpolitical.

Two Minnesota Boys Lost Picking Berries

ORR, Minn. (AP)—"We've got to find them today or there probably won't be much use looking anymore."

This alert was sounded today by Ray McDermott as he appealed for volunteers in the search for Francine Crego, 10, and her brother, Michael, 8, missing since they went out to pick blueberries in this remote northern wilderness area at midday Wednesday.

The children were staying at their grandfather's remote Ash Lake cabin while their father, Lyle Crego, Jr., was here to help with some family logging.

Woman Is Killed in Saegertown Collision

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A two car collision at Saegertown near here Thursday killed Miss Delores Taylor, 21, of Meadville.

She was riding in a car driven by Mrs. Donald Marian of Atlantic City. Mrs. Marian was admitted to Spencer Hospital in Meadville in satisfactory condition.

The women were en route to Edinboro State Teachers College.

ARAB AND SOVIET UNION LEADERS CONFER AS MORE YANKS LAND IN LEBANON

By REINHOLD ENSZ

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—President Nasser of the United Arab Republic and Premier Khrushchev of the Soviet Union have gotten together for a discussion of the Mideast situation, Cairo announced today as more U. S. Marines landed in Lebanon.

The Nasser-Khrushchev conference took place Thursday in Moscow, with Nasser going there secretly after his meeting in Yugoslavia with President Tito. Until today, it had been assumed Nasser was still aboard his yacht, en route home from Yugoslavia. He left Yugoslavia Monday, the day revolutionists backing him seized the Iraqi government.

Nasser was reported to be in Damascus, Syria, today. Egyptian papers said he would return home Saturday.

The Moscow conference came at a time Nasser's and Khrushchev's delegates in the United Nations were joining in actions aimed at getting American troops out of Lebanon and British troops out of Jordan.

But the British-American buildup was continuing. Three more British battalions were ordered into Jordan to bring British strength there to more than 5,000.

More U. S. Marines came ashore in Lebanon.

With carrier planes flying cover, the 1st Battalion of the 8th Regiment landed near Beirut. It joins two Marine battalions landed earlier this week at the request of pro-Western President Camille Chamoun.

This brought the total of U. S. Marines in Lebanon to about 5,100. About 2,000 U. S. paratroopers are nearby in Turkey. New warship arrivals swelled the total of U. S. 6th Fleet units in Lebanese waters to 49.

An advance party of 30 U. S. paratroopers arrived in Beirut under command of Col. Charles Fardale of Quincy, Mass.

While the British and Americans rushed their buildup in the Middle East, Saudi Arabia put a crimp in U. S. plans to fly tanker planes loaded with oil from Bahrain to Jordan.

U. S. Embassy sources in Amman said Saudi Arabia—which has been on the sidelines in this latest crisis—refused permission for the tankers to fly over Saudi Arabia from the Persian Gulf. This is the fastest and only direct route.

The oil is badly needed by Jordan, as well as by British forces there.

The Leatherneck reinforcements came ashore at 9 a. m. under the command of Lt. Col. John H. Brickley of Billings, Mont.

An American official said the Marines would stay for the present in the immediate area of the landing and maintain a beachhead there. Cover planes came from the carrier Saratoga off the Lebanese coast.

U. S. combat planes streamed into the Adana staging base in southern Turkey.

Other striking forces were being rushed to the Mediterranean by the British to move on a moment's notice.

The Marines and the British troops in Jordan sat tight without firing a shot. But the U. S. intervention aroused mounting opposition in the Lebanese Parliament.

The British paratroopers, sporting jaunty red berets, were welcomed by Jordanians, who fear the pro-Nasser coup in Iraq might spread to Jordan. They blamed President Nasser of the United States for the crisis.

THRILL FOR RAILFANS
Titusville Herald: Titusville residents who were accustomed to relatively short passenger trains back in the days when people paid to ride the varnished cars into the city were treated to quite a sight yesterday morning as a train of 30 Pullmans — and caboose — rolled north on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The long train was "dead-heading," that is, carrying no passengers on a trip from Pittsburgh to Buffalo. The train was part of movements of Pullmans being used to bring Pennsylvania and New York National Guard troops to and from summer maneuvers. The northbound train was pulled by a three-unit diesel, the engineer of which was S. H. McFetridge and the conductor, J. A. Kennedy, both of the Oil City district. George Cox of 324 E. Bloss St., a retired employee of the South Penn Oil Co., whose house is located about 150 feet from the railroad tracks, said he saw the train as it passed through the city between 9 and 10 a. m.

Warmer Weather Attracts Crowds To Playgrounds
Warmer weather this week brought out large crowds at playgrounds in the Borough the past three days. Crescent, Memorial and Airport wading pools and sprinkling systems at Beaty and Lacy have been in constant use during supervised hours from 10 a. m. to 8:30 p. m.
Younger children enjoy these facilities immensely with very little danger of injury or mishap. Two supervisors are at each area during the busy afternoon hours.
Penelec cooking school will conduct classes for Children of Lacy next week. Mrs. Evelyn Overturf has enrolled capacity classes for both morning and afternoon sessions. Classes graduating today at 2 p. m. are from East, Seneca and Home Street schools.
Children are looking forward to annual Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher day slated to be held at Crescent wading pool at 2 p. m. Wednesday afternoon. This annual affair always provides much amusement for spectators and participants. Warren Field and Stream Club provides fish and prizes for this event.

AT THE THEATRES
"THE VIKINGS" NOW AT THE LIBRARY THEATRE
If there has ever been a tougher group of fighting men than the Vikings, history has failed to record their name. This omission noted, the Vikings must be set down as the toughest, most rambunctious and brutal warriors since the dawn of time.
This being the case in fact, it is the case in a movie aptly named "The Vikings," starring Kirk Douglas, Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine and Janet Leigh, now at the Library Theatre through United Artists release.
No punches are pulled in showing the Norsemen in all their stark ferocity in "The Vikings," an epic screen adaptation of the best-selling novel by Edison Marshall.
The Vikings were almost as tough at play as they were when fighting for real. For example, when a party started getting dull, it was frequently enlivened by a couple of the long-haired giants tying their braids together and then proceeding to slash at each other with 18-pound swords until one or the other hollered "uncle". Since the royal road to Valhalla wasn't approached by hollering uncle, this little pastime usually produced one very dead Viking.
Actually, the Vikings were only a little more brutal than anybody else in their hey-day.

THE EAGLE SCREAMS
Olive H. Soderberg,
108 Wood Street, Warren
O God, methinks I hear a cry—
A cry of Mortals in distress—
The Eagle screams, and licks his wounded sides;
He just came back from battle, had done his very best.
The cries of the wounded were o'er—
The echo of the battle field grown dim—
He had earned peace, high on a hill top—
A new life—with God, to begin.
He sees Miss Liberty in all her glory—
Standing to guard the way—
A gift from those across the Sea—
Because we led the way to pray.
When fog enshrouds her shining crown—
It never dims the light—
It penetrates the deepest gloom,
And glows on starry nights.
Our shores are shores of freedom—
New hope to the oppressed—
In many lands across the Sea—
Come calls from people in distress.
We had hoped the "Lust for Power"—
Had faded in the dim beyond—
The Eagle screams, and eyes his talons scarred
To help his brother, despite his wounds, again
To cross the pond.
His ships must sail, with lives most precious—
They train, with heads held high—
And Mothers die a thousand deaths,
As on the battle field their sons may die.
So open up your church doors wide—
And let the throngs pass in—
To pray to God—"Have Mercy"—
And save man from greater sin.
The slaughter of the innocent—
Must all mankind be judged?
Can we separate the lambs from those—
Who bear the Great U. S. A. a grudge?
The Eagle screams from the pinnacle—
And he eyes his talons sharp—
Against the graven sky he stands alone—
Then plunges — on his journey he embarks.
Our boys are all alerted—
With guns and spirits high—
The call has come to sever,
Each and every family tie.
The Lady of the World stands—silent—
With flaming torch held high—
The peace of all the World stands guard—
As she reaches toward the sky.
May her flame ignite the "Love Line"—
From here, to cross each ocean—
Reach into every heart of Man—
And set a friendship flame in motion.

Chronology of 7 Hours It Took Baghdad Rebels To Overthrow Iraq Royalists

By WARREN ROGER JR.
WASHINGTON (AP) — It took seven hours last Monday for the Baghdad rebels to seize and secure power over Iraq. And then, for the rest of the day, the mobs took over.

That was the picture of the Middle East's fateful July 14, as shown in a chronology based on the best available publishable information here. Officials informed on the situation assembled the pieces, some admittedly sketchy, this way:

Baghdad was sleeping. It was 5 a.m. and the first faint rays of another sun were just beginning to appear. Swiftly and silently, Brig. Gen. Abdel Karim el-Kassem led his 20th Brigade into the unsuspecting city.

Whispered orders. Detachments dropped off at the railroad, at the bridges, at the telegraph office, at main street junctions, at the post office, at Baghdad radio. Quietly, efficiently, the troops took over without firing their rifles and machine guns.

More whispered orders. This time, names of those to be arrested. Other detachments going around to the specified addresses, knocking and arresting, with orders to shoot if resisted.

In an hour the secrecy, locked in the hearts of fewer than two dozen men for two months, was no longer necessary. It was 6 a.m.

The first phase of a classic coup was over. Baghdad radio blared the city awoke with the news: "Citizens of Baghdad, the monarchy is dead, the republic is here!"

And then, the names of 15 men, mostly young army officers. The 12-man Cabinet, headed by Kassem as premier, and the three-man Sovereignty Council, the new strategy-making supercabinet, topped by Lt. Gen. Najib el-Rubai.

A detachment, led by two officers, went to the royal palace. By now, a mob was gathering, mystified, curious, excited. With the mob trailing, the soldiers forced their way into the palace.

They were brought up short by the sight of their young King. The 23-year-old Faisal, a pistol strapped to his side, stood beside his 46-year-old uncle Abdul Ilah, crown prince and ex-regent. With them, rifles drawn, were two members of the palace guard. They were ordered to surrender.

Abdul Ilah, also armed, was disdainful. He and Faisal had arisen early to fly to Ankara, Turkey, for a Baghdad Pact meeting. Faisal ordered his guards to shoot. The soldiers fired first and the guards fell dead. Abdul Ilah went for his pistol. Another fusillade and both he and Faisal crumpled to the floor.

The King was dead. But the prince might have been still alive. The mob surged forward, kept a respectful distance from the King but seized the prince.

Abdul Ilah, a meticulous man who liked pink shirts with gray pinstriped suits and hated crowds, was dragged through the streets of Baghdad behind a jeep. His body was hung on a building so all could see he was dead. The King's body was exhibited later, probably on a marble slab.

But the big prize got away. Premier Nuri Said, "the Old Fox," caught wind of the coup and fled to the suburbs. Angered, the military junta slapped a $28,000 price on his head. It was not until two days later that he was found, disguised as an old woman with a black scarf covering his face. He shot it out and fell dead. His body, too, was hung in display.

Nuri's reported lament to President Eisenhower in Washington last fall comes back now with prophetic irony. "I am a strong man," he told Eisenhower, "but I am 70 years old and there is no one to succeed me."

It was 8 a.m. Baghdad radio

Middle East Q. and A.: It's Spelled Out in Oil

By WARD CANNEL
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Here are some of the immediate questions facing the U. S. on the crisis in the Middle East—and answers obtained from qualified authorities:

Q. What do we want from the Middle East?

A. Oil. The U. S. and the free world consume 18½ million barrels of oil each day.

Q. But what about nuclear energy, solar energy—new fuels that science promises?

A. Even at our present rate of scientific advance, our oil needs are increasing daily. Within seven years we will need 28½ million barrels of oil each day.

Q. Don't we have enough oil under U. S. ground to supply our needs?

A. Probably not. It has cost more and more each year to find new oil reserves. And the cost of squeezing oil from shale is very high. If we depend solely on U. S. oil reserves, the price of our fuel will rise and we will jeopardize our defenses by running dry.

Q. How much oil do we have?
A. Expert opinion varies. But there is general agreement that proven sources in the U. S. are about a 12-year supply.

A. With much of this barren, treeless, alien land still uncharted, geologists have already estimated that the Middle East holds two-thirds of the earth's oil.

Q. Can't we look to Venezuela or Canada for new oil?

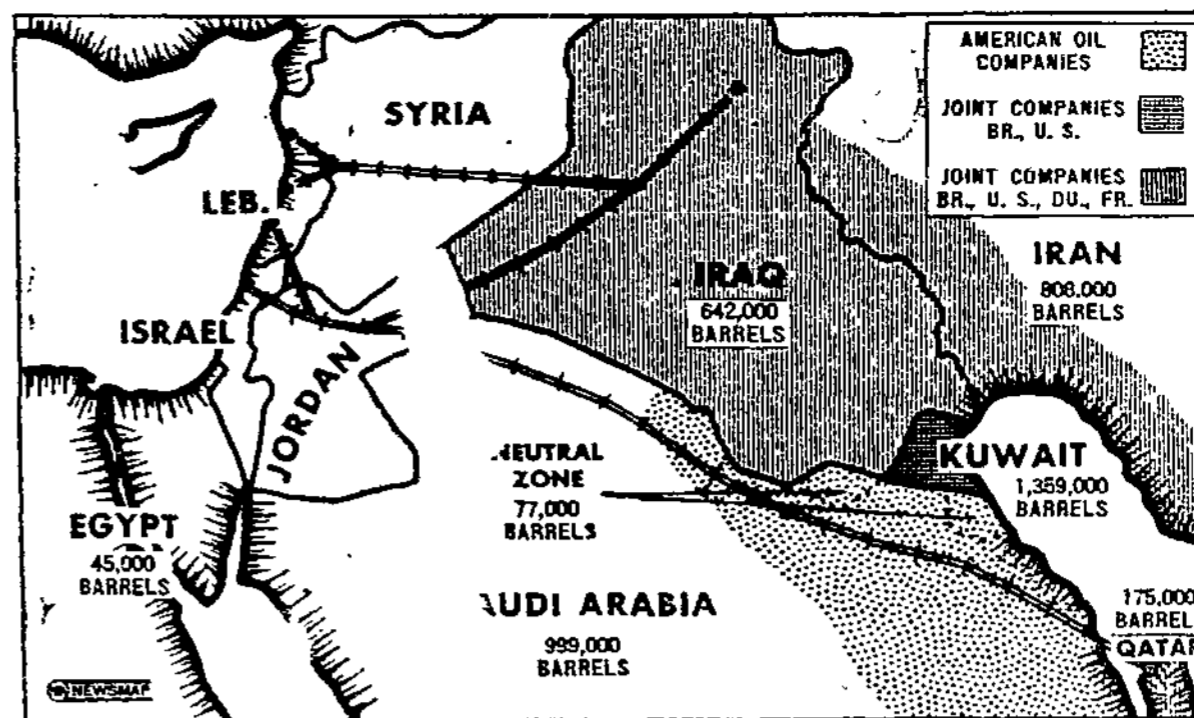

A. Yes. And we are. But the cost of finding it is high and meanwhile we know that under the tiny country of Kuwait—about the size of Connecticut—lies twice the entire amount of oil in the U. S. And under a small section of Saudi Arabia that has been charged there is an equal reserve.

Q. But isn't it costly to import oil?

A. Not Middle Eastern oil. Where U. S. oil costs well over a dollar per barrel to produce, a barrel from Kuwait, for example, costs nine cents.

Q. Because labor is cheaper in the Middle East?

A. No. Oil production is not like auto production: labor is a small part of it. Cost of oil is built on availability. And where the average U. S. well pumps about 13 barrels per day, a Middle Eastern well pumps about 5,000 barrels per day.

BLACK GOLD: At stake in the Middle East crisis is the Arab world's vast production and reserves of oil. The figures above show the average daily production in barrels for the first five months of 1958. Lebanon, Syria and Jordan produce no petroleum, but pipelines from the richest producing nations pass through their territories.

Q. Does Western Europe have any oil?

A. Hardly any. France and England, for example, import well over 80 per cent of their oil needs from the Middle East.

Q. Does Russia want Middle Eastern oil?

A. Yes. But not for the rights to use Arab-controlled oil. If Russia succeeds in helping Nasser drive the West out of the Middle East, Russia would then be faced with the tremendous burden of paying Nasser the royalties his people would lose. Saudi Arabia, for example, gets $1,000,000 per day in royalties for her oil.

A. Our experts say no. Russia has enough oil of her own to supply her needs.

Q. But isn't she wooing Col. Nasser?

A. Yes. But not for the rights to use Arab-controlled oil. If Russia succeeds in helping Nasser drive the West out of the Middle East, Russia would then be faced with the tremendous burden of paying Nasser the royalties his people would lose. Saudi Arabia, for example, gets $1,000,000 per day in royalties for her oil.

Q. Does Nasser's United Arab Republic need the oil under its earth?

A. No. The cradle of civilization is only now beginning to awaken after a thousand years' sleep. This is an agrarian land and most of its machinery is used in either tilling the soil or producing oil.

Q. Well then, if Russia doesn't need this oil and the Arabs can't use it, that leaves only the free, industrialized nations.

A. Right. And, Nasser knows it. Listen to an excerpt from his autobiography:

"There remains (a) third source (of strength for us): oil, a sinew of material civilization without which all of its machines would cease to function. . . . The center of oil production has shifted from the United States to the Arab area where the wells are still virgin. . . . Have I made clear how great the importance of this element of strength is?"

Q. Then he must deal with the free world?

A. Yes. But as he takes over more and more of Middle East, he holds the terms in his own hands. The Suez Canal, for example, flows out 60 per cent of Middle Eastern oil. Now he threatens to take Lebanon, Jordan, Iraq and Saudi Arabia—the land through which the rest of the oil moves by pipeline.

Q. Is there any way to deal with Nasser short of war?

A. This is the problem that faces the Western World.

UNIFORM SHORTS

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass. (AP)—Mailman Lester J. Newton went on his rounds in Bermuda shorts, but still was in regulation uniform. He said he learned the shorts were permissible if the regular uniform trousers were used. His wife merely cut down a pair of old uniform trousers.

SKIS TO HOSPITAL

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—David McKenney, 17, water skiing on Cedar Creek, tried to splash water on a dock as he flashed by. At that moment he sneezed, hit the dock and wound up in a hospital with a broken arm and leg.

FLORIDA JOBLESS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Payments to the jobless in Florida soared to a record high of 23½ million dollars during the past 12 months, the State Industrial Commission reported.

DETERMINED ARTIST

PATERSON, N.J. (AP)—A female model's picture gracing a

WRONG ODOM

CINCINNATI (AP)—The name of Benjamin Odom, 29, was certified by the City Civil Service Commission for appointment as a guard at the Cincinnati workhouse. Odom didn't get the job. He already was at the workhouse serving out a $42 fine for traffic violations.

UNLUCKY YOUNGSTER

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP)—The day before school was out, 12-year-old Gary Curry fell out of a tree. Both arms were broken below the elbows. He still was wearing casts this week when, while riding his bicycle, he fell and broke his left arm again, this time near the shoulder.

Suggest Congress Drop Its Various Investigations

Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Elmer J. Holland (D-Pa.) suggested today that Congress drop its various investigations and "get back to its job."

"Congress was never intended as an investigation body," said Holland. "It is supposed to be a legislative body."

The Pittsburgh Democrat, a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor, said the Federal Bureau of Investigation should take over all probes of un-American activities and the Justice Department should pursue investigations where law violations are suspected.

Increase in Crops of Fruit Is Predicted

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Department of Agriculture today predicted increases in all Pennsylvania fruit crops except apples. Increases were expected for peaches, sweet cherries, red sour cherries, grapes and pears. Poor pollination weather caused a relatively light crop of apples in most Pennsylvania commercial areas, the department said.

Some early peaches from Pennsylvania orchards are expected to appear at local markets within a few days.

BEWARE THREE-LANE "KILLERS"

"Three-lane highways are natural killers—beware!"

Heavier summer and vacation travel brought this warning to motorists today from O. D. Shipley, Director of the State Bureau of Highway Safety.

The safety expert lists the following three basic rules to be followed by motorists for safety when driving on three-lane highways, such as through North Warren on Route 62, and through Starbrick, on U. S. Route 6:

Never attempt to pass any car that is traveling at the maximum legal speed.

Never attempt to pass when there is a solid line of cars coming from the opposite direction (one of these drivers might try the same thing at exactly the same time).

If you must pass, get into the passing lane at least 75 or 100 feet back of the car directly ahead of you.

"Many persons die on Pennsylvania's three-lane highways each year," Shipley warns. "Close adherence to the above rules and otherwise sane, courteous driving might save your life."

Pointing out that three-lane highways represent only a very small percentage of the state highway system—less than 800 miles of state-maintained primary and secondary three-lane roads 27 to 45 feet in width remaining on the 41,000 state highway system—Shipley says that these "killer-type" roads nevertheless account for far too many accidents and fatalities.

"Last year," he reports "there were 11,658 accidents on three lane highways. A total of 126 of the 1,698 traffic fatality toll for 1957 occurred on these types of road."

Shipley states that while the State Highway Department is eliminating three-lane highways from the system as rapidly as possible wherever feasible and practical, motorists should exercise every precaution when traveling on these roads.

"The fact that three-lane highways now total only 786.10 miles does not make them less dangerous," he concludes. "Play it safe by remembering that three-lane highways are natural killers—beware!"

FARM SAFETY WEEK

Reduction of deaths from accidents on Pennsylvania farms to "zero" during Farm Safety Week, July 20-26, is a goal set by the State Farm Safety Week Committee.

Agriculture Secretary William L. Henning, Farm Safety Week state chairman, says 50 farm workers and children lost their lives in accidents and fires on farms from January 1 to June 30, an average of nearly two per week. For the same 6-month period last year 40 fatalities were recorded.

Five farm accident fatalities were reported for the first week in July.

"Due to seasonal work load increases on farms we might expect from three to five farm people to lose their lives in accidents during the week of July 20-26," Henning declares. "Our hope is to see no such accidents that week."

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press News Analyst
 WASHINGTON (AP)—If a shooting showdown should flare in the Middle East, the government can be expected to act quickly to combat the shortages and inflation which mark even brush fire wars.

Some of the tools to do this job are already at hand. Others probably would be asked quickly from Congress. And Congress could be expected to respond just as quickly, although there is no indication now such action will be needed.

Even a limited war in the Arab world could light a rocket under defense spending, put a bind on supplies of some strategic materials and open the way for new hikes in living costs.

Oil probably would stop flowing from Middle East wells to the big Western European markets. This might require another oil lift from the Western Hemisphere to Europe—the kind of operation carried on while the Suez Canal was blocked early last year.

Already on the books are regulations for the allocation of strategic materials. These could and presumably would be imposed very quickly to prevent waste of vital stocks.

Also available is another regulation to curb hoarding by controlling industry inventories of raw materials.

There is no provision in present law for controlling wages and prices. And credit can be curbed only indirectly through the Federal Reserve Board's power to tighten or loosen the money supply.

The Eisenhower administration is wary about imposing mandatory restraints on the economy. However, it is dedicated to fighting inflation.

To cope with the inflationary pressures of even a small war, it certainly would give quick consideration to such measures.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Like an echo from a ruined castle, prayer is an echo from the ruined human soul of the sweet promise of God.—William Arnot.

"We Both Need Him"

Here and There

Troubles in Iraq, according to Arthur Edson, Associated Press feature writer, goes all the way back to Eve, who harkened to the serpent. For here, Edson reminds, according to tradition, was the Garden of Eden. And though archeologists haven't uncovered the garden yet, they have found silt layers showing there was a flood like the one described in Genesis. The word Iraq, unfortunately, stirs few historical memories. You have to go back to the names it once was known by: Mesopotamia; Babylon. Assyria, in the north; and Chaldea, in the south. Anyone who has read the Bible is familiar with some of Iraq's past. The National Geographic Society has a map, "Lands of the Bible Today," which shows that man got in some of his best, and some of his worst, ticks in this troubled area. Here Abraham was born. Here Nebuchadnezzar built one of the seven wonders of the world, the Hanging Gardens, all because his bride was homesick for Media. Here was

Nineveh: "Woe to the bloody city," Nahum said. And here Belshazzar got his comeuppance from Cyrus. Although no one can prove it, it is believed that Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego got tossed into the fiery furnace at a spot not too far from the western border, near what is now Iran. But all this is moderately late in this land's amazing history. Not too far from modern Mosul are the remains of the world's oldest known village. More than 7,000 years ago man—or his females—got fed up with hunting and fishing and settled down to agriculture. By 4000 B.C. the Mesopotamians were building a temple, the oldest known religious structure. By 3000 B.C. the Sumerians were making clay tablets and inventing writing. By 2500 B.C., the world's first map was drawn. Alas, at about the same time some cagey merchant invented installment buying. Seventeen hundred years before Euclid, youngsters around Baghdad were learning about the hypotenuse of a right triangle. This is the land of the Arabian Nights. This is the land of Sinbad the Sailor, who had his port on the Persian Gulf. Modern Iraq is bigger than California, but much of its land is flinty, scrub desert. Curiously, the rich valleys once supported many more than the five million who live in Iraq now. But neglect, warfare and natural catastrophes combined to destroy a complex irrigation system, and a comparatively well-off people was reduced to poverty. When Aladdin rubbed his oil lamp, he must have wished for more oil. For now 30 million tons of oil are produced each year in Iraq, good for untold riches in this industrial world. Good, too, for a source of trouble, especially because of Iraq's position.

A party of boys gave a car load of Oil City folks quite a "jar" fifty years ago, which would not have been so bad if they were able to throw—further: "A party of Oil City autoists who were out for a spin last evening were the victims of practical jokes and got a scare they will not soon forget. Boys had rigged up a dummy man, using old clothing and hay for the purpose. They placed this in the middle of the road near Pinaok and two farmers who came for the races thought they had found a drunken man. After investigating and discovering they had been fooled, they picked up the dummy with the intention of throwing it into a field, beside the road. They pitched it into the air but it struck the fence and bounded back into the road just as the auto party came along and the heavy machine ran over it. Feeling the jar, though they had not seen the dummy, the occupants were frightened nearly to death when they discovered that they had run over what they supposed to be a man. While debating as to what was to be done in the matter, the gang of boys, unable to no longer control themselves, roared out with laughter, and the incident was ended by the driving off of a very nervous party of people."

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
 AP Business News Analyst
 NEW YORK (AP)—The Middle East turmoil may bring yet another test of consumer opinion and all that means to business.
 What businessmen would like to know today: Will the new uncertainty chill some of the returning confidence noted of late? Or would any worsening of world tensions lead the American consumer to rush to buy as he did when U. S. troops were sent to Korea?
 Consumer spending is one of the hardest things to forecast for those who must plan ahead for their own business or for the nation's economic policies.
 The most recent poll taken by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan, covering a period from mid-May into June, shows that while consumer confidence dipped in the early months of this year it had regained its poise of late and was about back where it had been last December.
 But the survey was made before the lid blew off the political pot in the Middle East.
 Commodity traders have reacted in traditional fashion and bid up prices because world tension can upset world markets and distribution of goods and raw materials.
 But for the consumer things are different in mid-1958 than they were at the time of the Korean War. Now we have few if any shortages of materials or finished products. And more people now have at least the durable goods with which they can make do in a crisis.

 There was little excuse for the war scare buying that led to runs on stores in the early days of the Korean conflict. Today even the most hysterical would have to hunt hard for any excuse.

Over 70 Girl Scouts Are Enjoying Established Camp At Birdsall Edey

Despite rainy weather prevalent during the past two weeks, the 12-day session of Established Camp being conducted at Girl Scout Camp Birdsall Edey July 6-18, has been meeting with enthusiastic response from the 74 campers participating.

A report on camp activities, prepared by the Warren-Forest Council public relations committee, reads as follows:

From reveille in the morning until taps are sounded at night, the girls' days are filled with activities geared to the various age groups, and planned with the purpose of giving each girl an opportunity to experience a well-rounded camping program.

Girls of all ages are participating in the craft program, which includes baskets and letter holders fashioned from popple sticks, basketry, bead craft, and enamel work. Archery, introduced for the first time this year, is proving very popular among the campers, as is sketching. Badminton, volleyball, and softball tournaments are under way and provide much friendly competition between teams.

Older girls have made side trips, with several girls spending part of Monday and Tuesday at Camp Hawthorne Ridge of the Erie Council of Girl Scouts. Other girls from the older group camped out on Monday night at Gurney Hall's camp in Garland, returning to Camp Birdsall Edey on Tuesday morning.

Swimming is, of course, one of the most enjoyable activities offered at camp. Ardelle Johnson, waterfront director, and her staff of assistants, Joan Cioquennol, Beverly See, and Margie Rader, provide swimming instruction for all girls and are on hand to oversee all waterfront activities.

Popular cooks for several years at Camp Birdsall Edey,

"It's everything they say—and more." That's how Mrs. Robert McDannel of 53 Meadow Lane, Warren, feels about her electric water heater.

"And that's especially true," she added, "for mothers with young children. With a safe electric water heater, I don't have to worry when the children play near the water heater. There's no pilot light—no flames. And I always have plenty of hot water for baths—and to keep up with the washing. Our electric water heater certainly makes life more pleasant for all of us."

They then presented a water show, which included water games and a free swim period when they could demonstrate the progress they had made in swimming.

Responsibility for the camp operation is in the capable hands of Marsue Mortland, camp director, whose devoted efforts have provided a smoothly operated, efficiently run camp. Sally Deisroth, as program director, is providing able assistance in the craft department, as well as planning the special events, and being available for special help to the unit leaders in program planning.

Mrs. Gordon Kay has been on hand on various occasions to give instruction in sketching to those girls who were interested; and Mrs. Phil Coyle, of the Warren Public Library, was present on one of the rainy evenings for story telling. Popular nurse, Mrs. Herbert Maas, has been on hand throughout the camp session to patch up the minor cuts and bruises which have occurred.

AT SAINT PAUL'S

For the 10:30 a. m. service, Kenneth Lundahl will preach the sermon and Russell Thelin will be liturgist; Klahr Peterson will sing "Trust in Him" by Hamblin; Mrs. Albert Anderson will play "Hour of Devotion" by Rathbun, "Prayer" by Wolf, and "Blessed Are They That Dwell in Thy House" by Tours. Next Thursday at 6:00 p. m., Dorcas Society members and families will have a tureen picnic at Chapman Dam, coffee, cream and sugar to be furnished.

CEORA PROPER PLANS OPEN CHURCH

RUSSELL—Miss Ceora Proper, daughter of Mrs. Joyce Proper, will observe open church Saturday, July 19, when she becomes the bride of Louis Rosendahl, son of Mrs. Avis Rosendahl, in a ceremony performed at 2:00 p. m. in Kinzua Methodist church.

DOUBLE BEATEN AT TRICK THREE

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

The game was duplicate and East's double of the two club bid was an effort to pick up a top score.

West opened the queen of spades and North's ace took the trick. The king of clubs was taken by West's ace and West shifted to the ace of hearts. Dummy played the ten and after East signaled with the six, West continued with the three spot.

his nine and promptly led back a third heart. He finessed dummy's jack and East ruffed. East played king and one spade. West ruffed and led his last heart. South overruffed East's eight and pulled the last trump. Now dummy's jack of spades furnished a discard for his losing diamond and he made his contract.

West was critical of East's double, but East squelched him by showing him how he could have beaten the hand at trick three. See if you can figure out the defense.

If you can't figure it out, here it is. All West had to do was to lead a low heart rather than the ace. Rather a double dummy play but a winner. South could do anything he liked, but he would have had no means of keeping the defense from cashing a diamond trick in addition to the others.

Quarter-Century For Warren High School Class of 1933

Members of the Warren High School graduating class of 1933, with wives and husbands, came from many places to attend the 25-year reunion held Saturday, July 12, at Marcon Outing Club. The above Kofod Studio photograph of the group should provide fun for friends endeavoring to identify the grads.

Lewis Caterers served a delicious dinner at 7 p. m. to 112 persons, with Jack Logan an able emcee for the informal program.

Among those receiving awards were Dick Juline, California, who came the greatest distance; Vera Font Nesmith, whose home across the highway from the club made her the easiest member; Jane Dietsch Jorris, who has the youngest child; Frank Molinaro, married most years.

After John Kofod had entertained the group with a program of interesting slides, there was dancing to George Johnson's music.

Noted among out of towners in the picture are Dr. Joe Gaughn and Cort Schuyler, Erie; Helen Groves Moore, Staunton, Va.; Edmund Johnson, Washington, D. C.; Kenneth Merritt, Detroit, Mich.; Myron Thomas, Philadelphia; Ned and Ann Schulman, Forty Fort, Pa.; with others from Buffalo, Erie, and towns of the immediate area.

Voting to hold another get-together in five years, the class chose Jim Senger to head the committee on arrangements.

Serving as committee for this year were Mrs. Robert Schindler, Stuart G. Nelson, John R. Logan, Mrs. Russell Templeton, Mrs. Jeral Angove, Homer L. Culbertson, Mrs. Elbert Moore, Mrs. Anthony Lucia, Mrs. Paul Gary, William Highhouse, Mrs. Magdalena Siggins, Mrs. Verna

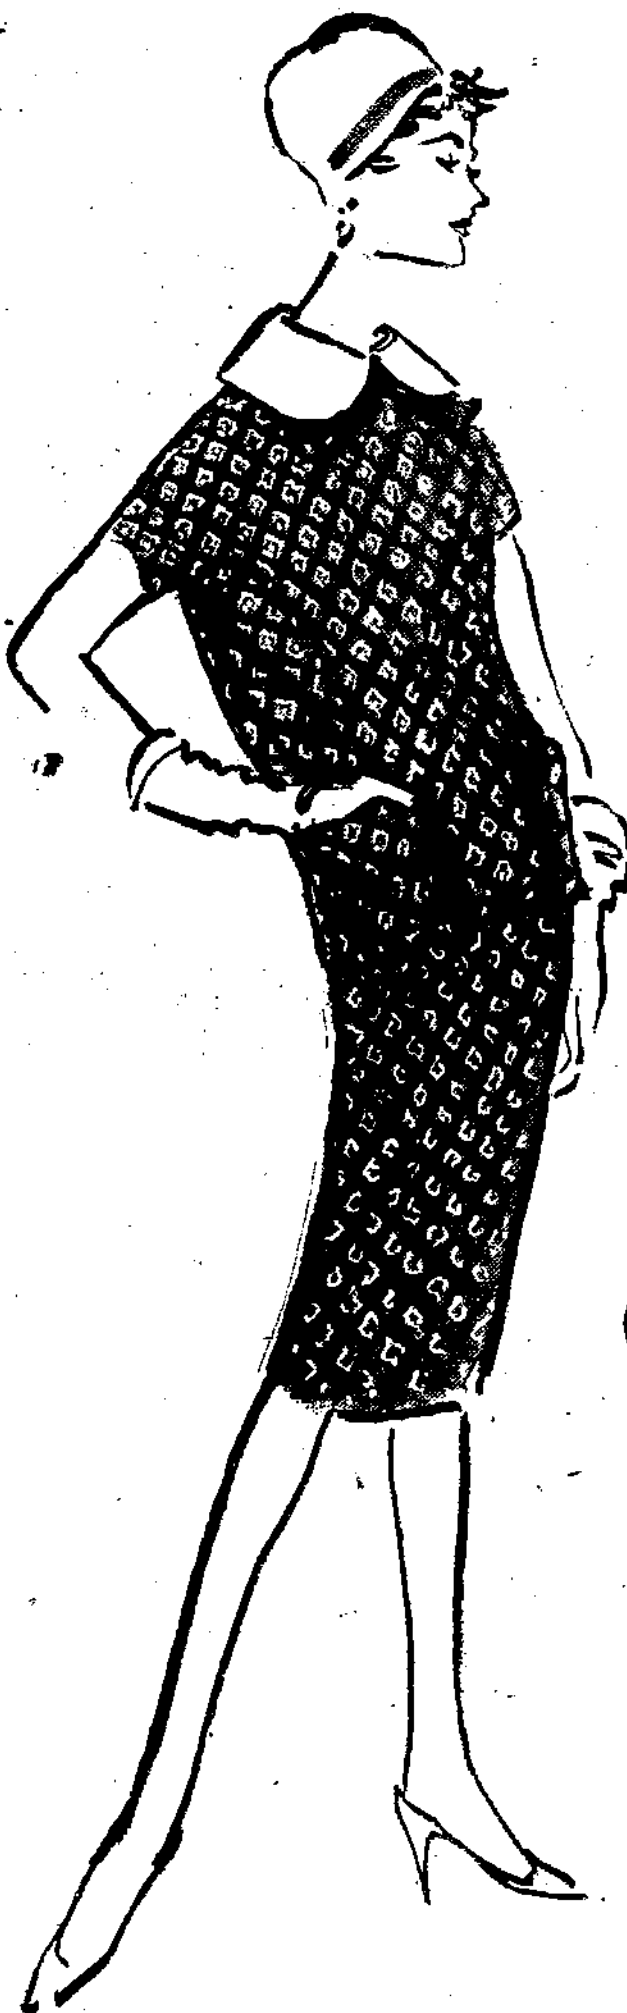

Lawson, Mrs. Harold LaPointe, Mrs. Harry Johnson and Harold Gibson.

GRACE METHODIST

Sermon topic for the morning worship will be "God's Plan of Redemption"; there will be a guest soloist. At the midweek service, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, the pastor's message will be "The Delivered Life."

Captain Is Commended

Captain Ruby Strickland Sharples, of Warren, presently assigned to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base at Dayton, O., as personnel service director and pictured in the USAF Photo above, received special commendation recently for her part in successfully planning and producing a Variety Show, which toured units of the 58th Air Division (Defense) during June.

According to the June 30th issue of The 58th Challenger, approximately 2,200 persons viewed the show, "The Twilights", in its 20 performances before units in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky June 2-21. An entire page of The Challenger is devoted to the show story and pictures of the performers, topped with one of Captain Sharples receiving the congratulations of Lt. Col. Frederick E. Miles, executive officer, for the ADC Commendation she received for "successfully accomplishing her mission."

She is credited with serving as both production manager and project officer for "The Twilights". Captain Sharples was in charge of her first variety show during World War II, in her initial assignment as personnel service officer, and was awarded the Army Commendation Medal later, while stationed on Okinawa, she organized a series of shows, one of which was selected to tour Japan and Korea. Returning to this country, she has been with the 58th Air Division since its inception.

Prior to the tour in which she presented "The Twilights", the local officer conducted several groups of servicemen entering sports competitions in Michigan and nearby states, another of her responsibilities as personnel service director.

Marriage Announced

Mrs. John H. Bright, Doylestown, Pa., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Edna Ann, to Edward Walter Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Creed A. Erickson, Sr., 507 East street, Warren, in a ceremony performed January 25, 1958 at Columbia, Pa.

The bride is the daughter of the late John H. Bright and granddaughter of Mrs. George S. Hotchkiss and the late Mr. Hotchkiss, of Doylestown. She attended Green Mountain Junior College at Poultney, Vt., and was graduated from Pennsylvania State University in June.

Mr. Erickson is a senior at Penn State and they are residing at 221 East Beaver avenue, State College.

Scholarship At Case

Fellow-graduates in the Warren High School class of 1958 and many other friends will be pleased with the news that Gary L. Holmberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Holmberg of Warren RD 1, has been awarded a four-year Alfred P. Sloan National Scholarship to Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland, O. The award amounts to $1,500 each year and but four are given annually.

Among the 1958 Honor Group at Warren High, young Holmberg was winner of the Dr. M. V. Ball Science Prize in the annual commencement exercises, and was also one of three National Merit Scholarship Award winners. He will enter Case in September and will major in chemistry.

Following receipt of a letter advising him of the Case award, Gary had word of a second honor accorded him in the form of a J. Paul Smith Scholarship in Chemistry at Pennsylvania State University, a cash award

FALL FASHIONS

Credo of a Designer

Fifth and Last in a Series
By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Today's women must be prepared to travel in clothes that are appropriate, comfortable and exotic.

Such is the credo of Tina Leser, a travel-happy designer. She delights in jaunting to far corners of the earth with her equally globe-minded husband Jim Howley. She brings back fabulous silks, rich brocades and Oriental embroideries to be shaped to the needs and figures of American women.

Winding up a news-packed week of fall fashion showings for 200 visiting fashion editors, the resourceful and romantic Tina shows six major shapes of style for fall and winter, 1958. They are: the dust-ruffle, the Watteau, the trapeze, the harem skirt, the powder puff silhouette and the bifurcated line—the latter consisting of skintight pants and varied tops, in costumes designed for glamor at home or comfort in air travel.

As always, Miss Leser creates an Arabian Nights mood with her rich Oriental fabrics, her Aladdin's lamp color magic, her subtle shaping of line to suggest the romance of ancient Persia. Authentic regional and traditional fashions have fascinated this designer since the time she opened her first salon in Honolulu a couple of decades ago and introduced international travelers to the color and excitement of native Hawaiian beach clothes.

Of major interest among her new shapes of fashion is the dust-ruffle silhouette, used in both dresses and coats and consisting of a straight, unfitted sheath ending in a ruffled flounce at the knee-high hemline. This is particularly effective in a simple gray flannel dress buttoned down the front and trimmed in lighter gray piping, and in a bulky coat of brushed mohair in muted tones of pink through orange, faintly plaided.

The Watteau dresses are for gala occasions, have semitight tops and graceful flaring, dome-shaped skirts. One example is a pale green printed wool challis with a small brown flower motif. The trapeze silhouette is done in a number of versions, one of the most striking of which is a short evening dress in white flannel embroidered in green and gold, shown with a matching sweater lined in 14-karat gold gauze.

Tina's powder puff silhouette has a puffed back panel floating from the shoulders and caught under at the hemline. Her harem skirts are shown in a number of outfits, including a plaid woollen dress in russet tones, worn with a rosy toned and bulky coat of looped mohair.

But perhaps the most history will be made with Miss Leser's new outfit for airplane travel in the space age. It consists of a short jacket and narrow slacks in beautifully tailored checked tweed worn with a color coordinated coat in bulky but lightweight mohair with dashing collar.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF DISTRICT CLUBS

Women's clubs affiliated with the Northwest District, Pennsylvania Federation, will hold their annual picnic next Thursday, July 24, at Cook's Forest, where a pavilion has been reserved. Those attending are asked to bring tureens, sandwiches and dessert, the coffee to be provided by the hostess unit. Members are anticipating attendance of Mrs. H. S. Henry, recently elected president of the District.

HILL AND DALE CLUB

LANDER—All Hill and Dale Garden Club members are urged to be on hand next Wednesday, when the regular meeting is held at the home of Mrs. Bert Stockton, with Mrs. Fred Ludwick, Mrs. Dale Skinner and Mrs. Paul Lindell the assisting hostesses. Roll call response will be display of an original corsage.

BETHLEHEM COVENANT

This parish will join with First Baptist church in the morning worship; at the evening service, Pastor Paul J. Peterson will be preaching the sermon. Events next week: Midweek service Wednesday evening, Christian Fellowship picnic Saturday afternoon and evening at Chapman Dam.

FIRST BAPTIST

The Rev. David Carlson, of Joliet, Ill.; former pastor of Bethlehem Covenant church, will be guest speaker at 11:00 a. m. Sunday for a combined service of Bethlehem Covenant and First Baptist parishes, held in the latter church.

MISSIONARY ALLIANCE

Morning services will follow the usual schedule, but there will be no evening worship for the next three Sundays, effective July 20.

FAMILY GATHERING AT WILDCAT PARK

There were 89 relatives and guests present for the 43rd annual reunion of the Johnson and Engstrom families July 13 at Wildcat Park at Ludlow. The Rev. Mallard L. Nelson, of Tabor Lutheran church, conducted devotions; Vice President Marshall Engstrom, Bradford, was in charge of the business session following dinner at 1:00.

Officers elected for the coming year were the president, Mr. Engstrom, Bradford; vice president, Walter Sandberg, Jamestown; treasurer, Evert Johnson, Ludlow; secretary, Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Kane; directors, Mrs. Ellis Johnson, Miss Mary Ellen Youngquist, and Henry Hennell, Mrs. Melvin Johnson and Mrs. Victor Gustafson.

Mrs. Homer Adams, Oil City, gave the Memorial Tribute to five family members who have died in the past year. Letters from those unable to be present were read. Awards were made to Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Nelson, with the most members attending; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allender, coming the greatest distance; Mrs. Belle Hennell and Axel Engstrom, oldest; Stephen Craig Perry, youngest.

FIRST METHODIST

"How to Know a Christian" will be Dr. A. C. Schultz' sermon topic at 11:00 a. m. Guest soloists will be Rosanna Oberg, singing "Eye Hath Not Seen" from Gault's "Holy City", and Stephen Coe, singing "In His Dwelling Place" by Humphreys; George A. Johnson will play "Larghetto Carillon" by Purcell, "Benedictus" by Rowley and "Summer" by Mason.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN
The Federated Democratic Women's Club of Warren County will hold its July meeting at 8:00 p. m. next Tuesday in the Warren Grange Hall, South Side across Hickory street bridge. Worth Hammond, recently elected Democratic county chairman, will be guest speaker.

Judge Flick Sentences Two Drunken Drivers

"How often do you go to church?" Judge Flick asked a drunken driver in court this morning.

"Not very often," said the defendant, Ed Kiernan, 36, of Jackson Street Extension and Harford.

"You mean 'Not often enough' don't you?" remarked the judge. The defendant agreed and then received the usual sentence of $100 fine, costs, and three days in jail.

Those receiving that judicial levy in Quarter Sessions court this morning for drunk driving were: Ed Kiernan, 36, of Jackson Street Extension and Harford, was picked up June 21. Joy was picked up July 1.

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., also presided over two non-support cases. In the first one a token payment of $1 a month "to prevent further harassment" was ordered. In the second case where the defendant was reunited with his wife, a tearful embrace and bearing near the bench followed the judge's remark that the prisoner was free to go.

ARRESTED IN CHURCH

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Three gunmen were arrested in a confessional box at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Armagh Thursday night. A search of the cathedral vault revealed a hideout equipped with bunks, clothing, explosive fuse, and other equipment. The cathedral hideout presumably was used by members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army.

Obituaries

Funeral Information Will Be Found Under Another Heading

ORVAL W. ALBAUGH
Largely attended funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Thursday for Orval Walter Albaugh, 8 Crescent street. The rites were conducted by the Rev. Paul Obinger, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, assisted by Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist minister, and the following served as bearers for interment in Oakland cemetery: Henry Bick, Sr., Marvin Merritt, Kenneth Brown, Harold Swanson, Richard Neely and Robert Chase.

CHARLES E. MCGUIRE
A committal service was held at the graveside in St. Joseph's cemetery at 9:30 a. m. today for Charles Edward McGuire, Sixth avenue, who died Wednesday morning at Rouse Hospital in Youngsville, where he had been for the past six weeks. Father Alfred Bauer conducted the prayer service.

Born March 1, 1874 in Galeton, Pa., Mr. McGuire came to Warren about 40 years ago and was employed for many years by Skipano Nurseries. He leaves no known survivors.

J. R. HAUMESSER
Joseph Raymond Haumesser, 410 Church street, Sheffield, died at the family home at 8:40 a. m. today after an illness of two years.

Mr. Haumesser was born in Glade 72 years ago on December 22 and had been a resident of Sheffield for the past 42 years, retiring following years of employment at the glass plant.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond and Frederick, Sheffield; Robert, with the U. S. Air Force at Savannah, Ga.; Mrs. Helen French, at home; also 12 grandchildren; one brother and one sister, John Haumesser and Mrs. Margaret Gaynor, both of Sheffield.

Mr. Haumesser was a member of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church and services will be held there at 9:00 a. m. Monday. Interment will follow in St. Joseph's cemetery.

HOMER A. MANLEY
Homer A. Manley, 80, well known resident of the Spring Creek area, passed away this morning shortly after he was found in his room with a gunshot wound through the mouth. Failing health for the past three years was given as the cause of the act, in an investigation under way by Coroner Ed. C. Lowrey.

Mr. Manley was born in Spring Creek township March 3, 1878. Excepting for brief periods spent in Buffalo and Jamestown, where he worked as an interior decorator, he had lived in that section all his life. He was married August 25, 1900, to Grace Bingham, who survives, with a daughter, Jeanne, at home, and a brother S. Victor Manley, Howell, Mich.

Mr. Manley was a former director and president of the Spring Creek township school board, and for many years a director of the P.E.A. He had also served as solicitor for the Spring Creek Fire Department.

Services will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock in Corry. The body will be cremated.

Fall Furniture Features Color, Double-Duty Utility

Room-dividing storage chest in walnut and rosewood rests on aluminum legs. It has a marble top and molded plastic drawer.

Austrian-style shade and wrought-iron candelabra key this setting by designer Lois Reed Dahlgren, A.I.D., Washington, D.C.

Decorative and practical qualities combine in home furnishings for fall, to charm the consumer into making a change or two around the house.

Outstanding new trends in design were scarce at the summer home furnishings market in Chicago. Much talk was directed to the big values in furniture.

There is plentiful evidence that manufacturers and designers are trying to anticipate what we might need or want to make our homes prettier, more comfortable, more individual.

Fresh interior design ideas are suggested in model room settings. Great emphasis is placed on varied storage pieces.

Enjoying a revival are such well-liked but not always easy-to-find articles as handsome love seats and comfortable rocking chairs.

BY KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer

In a compact, modern storage cabinet, for example, walnut and rosewood for the case are joined with a travertine marble top, brass-finished anodized aluminum legs. The drawer's interior is of molded plastic.

Incorporated into medium priced furniture are design details associated with higher priced items: painted decorations, imported, hand-blown glass doors, parquetry, inlay and carefully detailed hardware.

Added bonuses: sliding trays sized for shirts, deep drawers for handbags, lift-up vanity tops and dressers that include an electric outlet for a light or an electric shaver.

Colors without paying the penalty of costly upkeep.

One puzzler to some of the carpet industry representatives I talked to is the steady demand for off-white carpets.

Those do soil and there is no treatment yet for the fibers that will prevent dirt from showing.

A MODEL ROOM setting at the Merchandise Mart which draws delighted comments from the ladies is a pink-and-white sitting room.

It features a white nylon carpet scattered with pink needle-point roses. This is not a custom-made carpet; it's part of one company's standard line.

News in the white love seats is hidden under the rose upholstery. New, resilient cushioning material is made of dacron fibers which are said to resist matting and moths while providing a soft seat.

Other love seats ranged in style from cozy early American ones to a regal Federal model highlighted with pearl inlay on a black apron.

WE'LL BE SEEING livelier suggestions for window treatment this fall. Tucked Austrian-style shades can now be bought ready-made at moderate prices.

Reversible cafe curtains in more variety of patterns and colors, fabric-covered shutters, woven blinds and sliding translucent plastic panels promise to give a lift to windows.

Among them: handsome framed mirrors, wall scones and candle holders, including tall, wrought iron candelabra, clocks, special tile pictures and tall, slender, modern, bric-a-brac holders.

New Advance in Quest To Harness H-Bomb Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new advance in the American quest to harness the H-bomb reaction for industrial power was reported Thursday.

U.S. scientists have generated temperatures of an estimated 10 million degrees centigrade—almost twice the previous record high reported by the United States—testimony released by a House Appropriations subcommittee reported.

Dr. J. H. Williams, director of the Atomic Energy Commission's division of research, told of the development at recent hearings on AEC requests for supplementary appropriations.

Williams said scientists at the University of California Radiation Laboratory, an AEC facility, achieved the high temperature in research aimed at duplicating the powerful hydrogen fusion reaction for peaceful use.

Double-Duty Dishes Hold Meal Appeal

Casserole dishes, foreground, were packed with a meat stew and frozen in anticipation of this buffet. Woven mat, straw hat, daisy "vase" and glassware make this table a summer delight.

Don't put decorative tableware in storage during the summer.

It's surprising how a gaily set table can perk up flagging appetites and make simple fare seem fancier.

Most of us have a pretty casserole or two or a handsome salad bowl sitting on the shelf waiting for a "company" dinner, although it makes better sense to use them and enjoy them more often.

The fine heirloom piece or the fragile dishes that need special care rate special occasions, of course.

But I'm talking about the many modern pieces that are well-designed, strong and ready to be used in multiple ways.

Every new housewares show exhibits more additions to the oven-to-table ware and top-of-the-range saucers that also double as serving dishes.

They look pretty sitting on a shelf or hanging on a kitchen wall, and they look even better in use, when they offer the added advantage of saving extra dishwashing.

Pyrex dishes in new and inexpensive designs have another bonus built in for the smart homemaker.

You can freeze food in the dish and take it from freezer to pre-heated oven for thawing and heating before it's borne proudly to the table in its own brass holder.

Pyrex dishes in new and inexpensive designs have another bonus built in for the smart homemaker.

You can freeze food in the dish and take it from freezer to pre-heated oven for thawing and heating before it's borne proudly to the table in its own brass holder.

SPECIAL ATTENTION to the design of some of the casseroles makes them particularly suitable for this use. Flat lids and rectangular shapes make for easy and space-conserving storage in a freezer.

Casserole lids should be sealed down with freezer tape, advise home economists for the manufacturers, if you plan to store prepared food for longer than two weeks.

IF YOU'VE EVER cooked a double batch of a family-favored casserole and frozen half for a future meal, you've experienced one of the real advantages of a home freezer.

COLORFUL BOWLS and platters can come to the table in more than one way. The new chip-and-dip bowls, for example, which combine a big bowl for chips with a small bowl set in a brass holder on its side for the dip can as easily hold salad greens and a help-yourself dressing, or fruit dessert with whipped cream.

Divided relish trays show off a variety of sandwich fillings for a make-it-yourself lunch. Incidentally, one of the quickest ways to rid the refrigerator of those leftover dabs is to put them in divided relish dishes or trays and let the youngsters serve themselves a "smorgasbord."

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Bredie

St. MARK was not one of the 12 apostles but accompanied Peter and Paul on many of their missionary journeys. He may have been the young man, described in his own gospel, who fled in a "linen cloth" when the soldiers came to arrest Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane.
Mark wrote his gospel at the request of the Romans who asked him to set down the teachings of Peter. He later preached in Alexandria and, like his friends Peter and Paul, was martyred for his faith.

Church Notes

ANNUAL OUTING OF ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN
Members and their families will participate in their annual Outing at Wilder Field at Irvine Sunday, the service at 10:00 a. m. to be followed by tureen dinner. Meat, potatoes, dessert and coffee will be furnished, those attending to bring table service and rolls. In case of rain, the usual schedule will be followed in the Grange Hall. On Monday, Women of St. John's will hold their meeting.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES
"What Did Christ Ransom?" will be the public talk at Kingdom Hall at 7:00 p. m. Sunday, the speaker to be Lawrence Green, of Corry. At 8:15, from the June 15 issue of Watchtower, there will be group discussion of the subject "Be Balanced in All Things".

BETHANY LUTHERAN
"The Transfiguration of Christ" will be Pastor Carl F. Eliason's sermon topic at The Service, 9:30 a. m.

LANDER METHODIST
"Contending With Horses" will be the 11:00 a. m. sermon topic of the Rev. John Ruggiero, who also reminds there will be no evening MYF meeting. Next week: Wednesday, 7:30, Junior Choir, and 8:30, Senior Choir; Friday, 7:30, MYF will sponsor an evening of fun and games for all young people.

CALVARY BAPTIST
The Rev. Calvin Merritt, home town boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Merritt of Cobham Park road, will bring the message at the 11:00 a. m. worship; at 7:00 p. m., the Rev. Kenneth Romig will be guest speaker. Soloist for Sunday services will be David Obinger of Chicago, brother of the pastor. Events next week: Wednesday, 7:00, midweek prayer; Saturday, 7:00, Prayer for Revival.

1ST. PRESBYTERIAN
"Christianity and Freedom" will be the Rev. Donald H. Spencer's sermon subject at 11:00 a. m., with a congregational meeting held at the close of the service. Carroll Fowler will play "Meditation" by Klein and "Cantilena" by Pierre; Baritone Everett Borg will sing "The Publican" by VandeWater and the quartet will sing "The Lord Is Nigh Unto Them" by Reiff. Guest singers are Gwendolyn Pearson, mezzo soprano, and Ray Marti, tenor. Next Thursday, at 12:30 p. m., Circle 4 will picnic at the Arnold camp on Chapman Dam road.

PENNA. AVE. BAPTIST
The Sunday school lesson at 10:00 will deal with "Marriage Is For Keeps"; sermon topic at 11:00 will be "What Extremes in Experience Can't Do"; for the evening service, "Praying Prepares For the Worst".

RADIO and TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—The luckiest day in John Erwin's life came just a year ago when the draft blew him into the Army.

John, who quit Indiana University and came to New York to study for a theater career, had managed to get three parts in off-Broadway shows. When Uncle Sam beckoned he had made a number of show business contacts that might sometime pan out, and hoped that soon he could stop bell-hopping, room-clerking or food-checking in hotels.

The Fort Wayne boy, who plays tenor saxophone and clarinet, was assigned to the 8th Infantry Band and shipped to Germany. One day he read in Stars and Stripes that American film packaging firm was going to make a television film series about Medal of Honor winners among World War II infantrymen. John wrote the producers a letter, and wangled a leave in which to visit them in Munich.

Result: He was cast to play the lead in two of the series, and later was cast for a third.

"I've played a Red Cross field director, a captain and a chaplain so far," says Pfc. Erwin, "and when I go back to Germany in a couple of weeks, I'll be playing in more of them."

The series, for fall release, is called "Citizen Soldier" and already has been syndicated to 35 TV stations. A hundred more outlets are expected to be sold before the fall season starts.

Meanwhile, however, shows in which Pfc. Erwin appears have been given some Hollywood previews, resulting in two offers for other TV work. And last week a producer called to offer him "a very good role in a theatrical motion picture with a very important star."

That isn't all the Army has done for a once struggling young actor. John entered the All-Army Entertainment Contest, won his category in Germany, was sent to compete in the finals at Ft. Belvoir, Va., and won again. Sunday night, therefore, he will appear on Ed Sullivan Show doing a satiric impression of how "Julius Caesar" would be played with a Hollywood cast doing summer stock.

Trio Accused of Fleeing Churches With Bingo Cards

NEW YORK (AP)—Three men and two women were accused today of fleeing churches and other groups with winning bingo cards counterfeited with a do-it-yourself kit.

Police said the ring operated in Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Buffalo and Erie, Pa., as well as New York City.

Police said they were unable to get any immediate estimate on the amount of money netted by the ring.

A couple of months ago, detectives received information that several groups running bingo games here had been defrauded. Investigation led to the posting of five detectives among players last night in the auditorium of St. Mel's Roman Catholic Church in Flushing, Queens. The detectives arrested five persons last night and early today. Charges were lodged today after lengthy questioning.

Those seized were Anthony Andrews, 49, of Whitestone, Queens; his son, John, 22, and Gerald Ross, 33, Irene De Vito, 27, of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Rosanna Liso, 30, of the Bronx.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

A Corry woman en route to Phoenix, Ariz. narrowly escaped possible death last week when she and her son-in-law and daughter were nearly caught in a tornado at Atchison, Kans. Mrs. Mary Clark of Corry and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Filson, New Bethlehem, were camped on the outskirts of that Kansas town when the storm struck the area. Their tent was blown down and their auto was on the verge of being blown away when the storm ceased. The area was one of widespread destruction. Mrs. Clark notified friends in Corry.

RUSHING TREATMENT JOB

The Bradford Sanitary Authority showed positively Monday it means business in adhering to a strict schedule that will have the state-mandated sewage treatment plant in operation there by September 1, 1959. The authority slapped a three-week time limit on the preparation of bids for incineration equipment. Chairman Raymond J. Brennan told the group that one of four prospective bidders had asked for six weeks because of a heavy volume of business that would delay drafting a bid until later.

The black swan is found in Australia.

THE DEATH OF A KING — Sketched, above, is how King Faisal II, pro-Western monarch of Iraq, died in the royal palace at Baghdad in the first blazing hours of revolt. NEA's artist Ralph Lane sets the scene as pieced together from reports from the Middle East. Down to death with Faisal under the blazing gun of an unidentified soldier went his uncle and adviser, Crown Prince Abdul Ilah.

Scientists at University Use Boats in Studies

UNIVERSITY PARK — Scientists at the Pennsylvania State University are utilizing boats in their research this summer.

Dr. William Spackman, Jr., associate professor of paleobotany, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. Philip Dolson, of the department of geology, are studying sediments in gulf waters along the coast of Florida and in the Everglades.

They are directing their attention to peats found in the gulf waters with the hope that more can be learned about the initial stages in the development of coal.

The study in Florida is a part of a project sponsored at Penn State by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, which is concerned with the accumulation of uranium in coal-producing environments.

In the department of zoology and entomology, Dr. Edwin L. Cooper, associate professor of zoology, is utilizing a boat in the study of fish life.

Dr. Bertil G. Anderson, professor of zoology and head of the department, explains that the boat will be used throughout the State, primarily on unpounded waters such as dammed rivers, reservoirs, and even farm ponds, to study fish populations and assemble other information concerning fish life.

Boyle's Comment

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—This is a tribute to fat-fighting fat!

Everybody in this country has been overpraising muscle — and low-rating fat — for a long time.

Isn't it about time now—since we give even the devil his due—that someone said few kind words for fat?

Fat doesn't spell weakness. It spells power. What is the mightiest creature in the sea? The whale. And what is the whale? He is a mountain of blubber, nature's floating oil tank. But he rules the deep.

What creature on earth would willingly tangle with the elephant or the bear? Yet they both love to get so fat they waddle when they walk.

When you get right down to it, fat has a lot of virtues entirely lacking in muscle.

What makes you nervous and jittery? What keeps you tense? Your nerves and muscles. But good old fat never gets excited. It is calm and soothing. It keeps telling you, "Take it easy. What's the hurry?" Fat is the voice of common sense.

Fat is faithful. Fat is loyal. It will stick to you through thick and try to cling to you through thin. After 40 you can't depend on your muscles much. Muscles are only the fair weather friends of your youth. But you can still count on your good old fat. It won't desert you.

When people want to look brave, they take a deep breath and flex their muscles. This is nonsense. They should take a deep breath and flex their fat. For fat is far braver than muscle.

In some situations your cowardly muscles seem to turn to water. But as any dieter knows, fat won't run off from anything—at least of its own volition. Fat is a born fighter.

Anyone who has ever tried to get rid of fat learns this quickly. My own experience is typical.

Six months ago my doctor told me: "Your weight is up to 210 pounds. Some 30 pounds of it is fat. The other 180 pounds is bone and muscle. Get rid of the fat!"

The solution seemed simple. Just starve the fat by dieting and wear it away by exercise. After all the odds seemed hopelessly in favor of the bone and muscle. They outweighed the fat 6 to 1.

But what happened? The fat wouldn't give up. In the last half-year I must have walked a distance from here to Timbuktu, done enough knee bends to need new joints, eaten hardly enough to keep a hummingbird humming.

The result: I have lost 15 pounds, at least half of which must be muscle. The fat has out-fought my muscles, pound for pound, every step of the way.

Eleanor Reeder of Fredericksburg, Ohio, is spending the summer in Hong Kong—but it's hardly a vacation.

She and Betty Wall of Tallulah, La., Robert Cunningham of Columbia, S. C., and Robert Blackstone of Hollywood, Calif., are helping to construct a playground and a family life center for refugees.

Halfway around the world, on the Greek island of Zakynthos, Alan Cervenka of Oak Park, Ill., Helen Bemis of San Bernardino, Calif., and Ruth Farnsworth of Warren, Mich., are digging trenches for water pipes.

The Americans are part of the World Council of Churches' work camp program which has a thousand young people of many nationalities scattered around the world in 40 camps in 25 countries.

The camps have a two-fold purpose.

They provide badly needed workers for such out-of-the-way construction projects as a country school in Vakin' Ankaratra, Madagascar, or a YMCA camp in Korea.

And, perhaps more important, they provide opportunities for youth of all nationalities and faiths to get together, something dear to the heart of the ecumenical-minded WCC.

The work camp program started in 1947 through the initiative of the Congregational Christian Service Committee (U. S. A.) and one of its secretaries, the Rev. Joseph Howell.

The first camp was held at the College Cevenon in Le-Chambon-sur-Lignon, France. The WCC moved in the following year and there were six camps. This year there are 40.

A total of 237 Americans are taking part in the 1958 program, with 132 serving abroad and the remainder in the United States on such projects as a chapel and youth center of American Indians.

The young workers are selected from volunteers who apply through their denominational boards or through the National Council of Churches. A joint committee of denominations makes the choice.

RUSSELL

RUSSELL — WBA members combined their regular meeting with a noontime tureen dinner at the home of Mrs. Oscar Benson on Wednesday. Mrs. Zimmerman conducted the business session, which was followed by games. Marie Harrington, Delaware, O., was present from out of town. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dan Lanmer August 13.

Frances Ruland has had as recent guests Mrs. Jane Phillips, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Crowe, Bear Lake; Mrs. Nellie McCullough, Warren.

Mrs. Cora Arnold, Kane, has been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruland.

IMPORTANT CHANGES in Youngsville telephone service COMING JULY 23

NEW DIAL OFFICE • NEW BUILDING ADDITION

A major expansion of telephone service is now taking place in Youngsville. To supply the increasing needs of this growing community, a new, larger dial central office is being installed; and a substantial addition has been made to the present building to house the new equipment.

NEW CENTRAL OFFICE NAME — LOGAN NEW 2-LETTER, 5-FIGURE DIALING

Starting Wednesday July 23, at 6 A.M., Daylight Saving Time, Youngsville customers will have a new central office name, LOGAN; and the 2-letter, 5-figure system of dialing will be in effect.

This means that when you call from one LOGAN telephone to another, you will dial the first two letters of the central office name, then the five figures of the number. For instance, to dial LOGAN 3-1234, you will dial the letter L... then the O... for LOGAN; then 3-1-2-3-4—seven spins of the dial.

These new telephone improvements—made at a cost of $125,000—will mean better service now, and even greater improvements in the future, when Youngsville (LOGAN) customers will be able to dial direct to many telephones throughout this country and Canada.

Ike and Lloyd

pro-Nasser rebels who seized power in Iraq last Monday could be driven out.

The stated aim of the movement of U. S. Marines into Lebanon, and British troops into Jordan, is to head off other such overruns in the strategic Middle East. Both the British and the American have accused Nasser's United Arab Republic of plotting such action.

Both the United States and Britain made it clear, before Lloyd arrived, that they had no plans to intervene directly in Iraq under present circumstances. One possibility for provoking a new situation would be a cutoff in the flow of Iraqi oil to the West.

However, officials said there was no indication the Iraqi regime intended to do this. Reports from the troubled area today were that the rebels were giving assurance that the oil would continue moving.

The White House denied a report that the main result of Eisenhower's conference with Lloyd was an agreement not to intervene in Iraq as long as the rebel government respects Western oil interests in that country.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said he had checked the report and was prepared to deny that such an agreement was reached.

The report, carried in the New York Times and attributed to diplomatic informants, said Eisenhower, Lloyd and Dulles had decided to limit their intervention in the Middle East for the present to Lebanon and Jordan. Hagerty's denial did not extend specifically to that portion of the report.

It was Hagerty who reported that Dulles gave the Cabinet a complete review of the middle Eastern situation up to this moment.

Outside of the diplomatic talks Sen. Mike Mansfield D-Mont. proposed that a conference of neutral nations be called to try to solve the problems of the Middle East if the United Nations cannot do so.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic whip and a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate he was offering the suggestion in a constructive spirit. He said it was not put forth with the intention of criticizing the administration's handling of the crisis.

Mansfield said he understood the U. S. resolution to send an international police force to the Middle East would fail in the U. N. Security Council, possibly because of a veto by Russia.

Motorist Forgets Bag Containing $5,000

Leesburg, Fla. (AP)—A visitor was so intent on getting a nickel in a parking meter that he left a satchel full of gold and silver coins worth $5,000 on the sidewalk.

He had brought them to town to discuss them with Carlisle Rogers, a coin expert.

The satchel was found by a high school student and taken into a nearby store. The store owner had been talking with the coin owner and identified it. It was taken to Rogers, who returned it to the visitor.

Rogers wouldn't identify his friend who, in the course of things got a ticket for over-parking.

Letters to Editor

Letter to the Editor:

We wish to make public that our daughter "Glory" was certainly a victim of malicious gossip or imagination.

We had just arrived at Chapman Dam last Sunday (approximately 10 minutes) when we noticed our daughter had disappeared. We were looking over the beach and water for her when I (Mrs. Colvin), saw the life-guard carrying her. I ran over and brought her back to where we were sitting. She obviously had a good drenching. We wrapped her robe around her to warm her and a thoughtful woman nurse from North Carolina, (I believe she said), who must have been sitting close by, took her pulse to see if her breathing was normal.

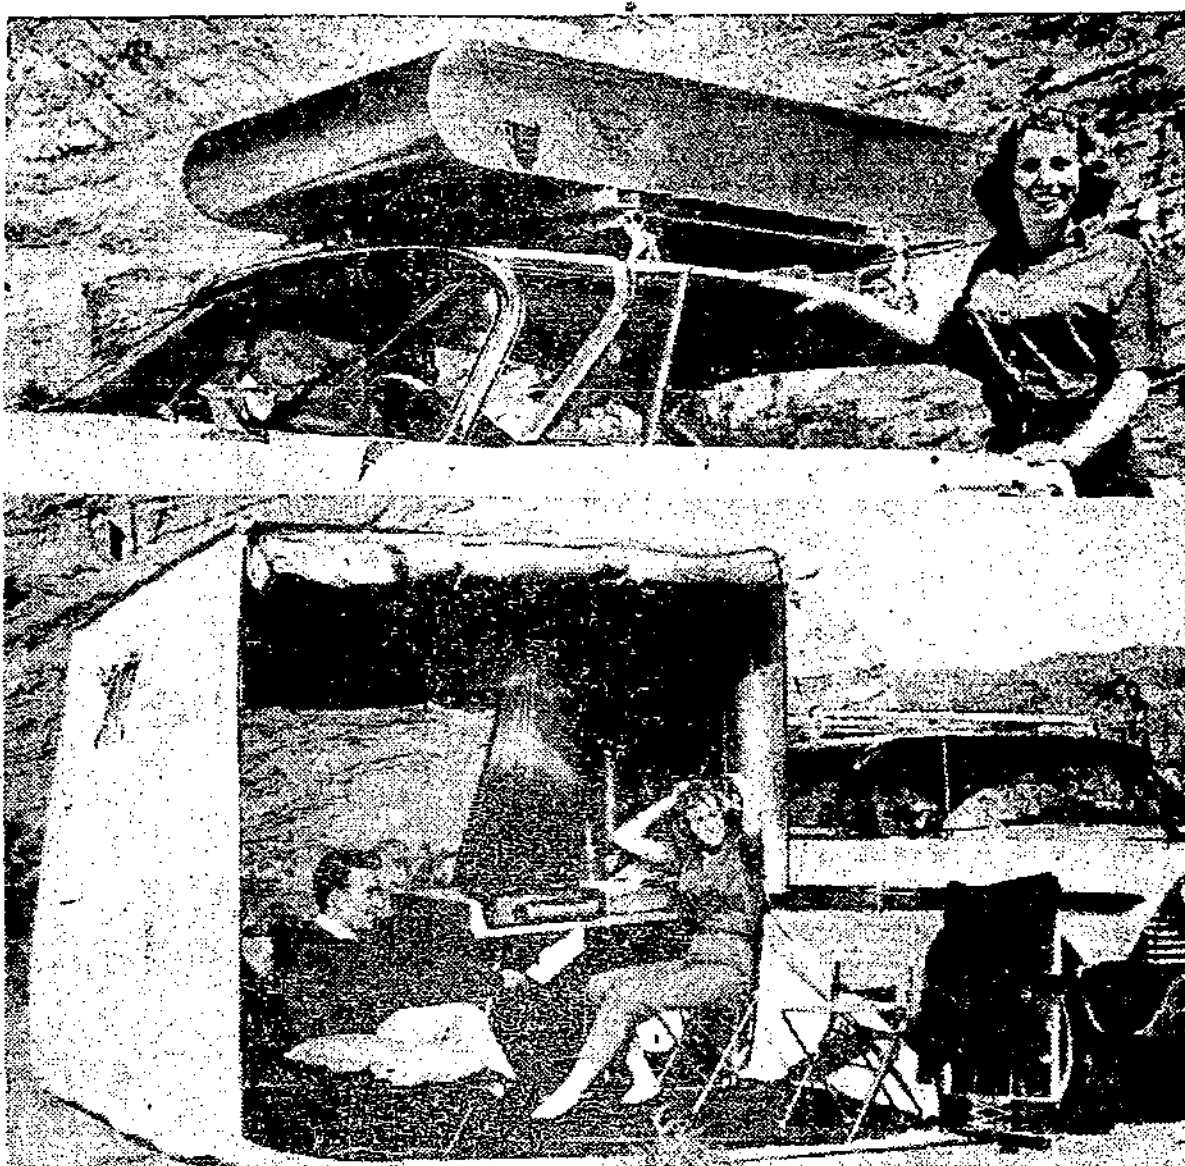

We then took her to the emergency room at the Warren General Hospital, where a check revealed no water was in her lungs and she was free to go home.

Somehow word got around that at the beach Glory was unconscious, had artificial respiration and her stomach pumped, which is all untrue. We have had phone calls concerning the condition of our daughter. How or why anyone could make up such a story and pass it on to someone, then someone else, etc., only the busy body could answer.

We thank you for reading this article and Mr. Lowrey for printing it and hope that anyone who has been passing falsifications about our daughter or believing them, now has the story true.

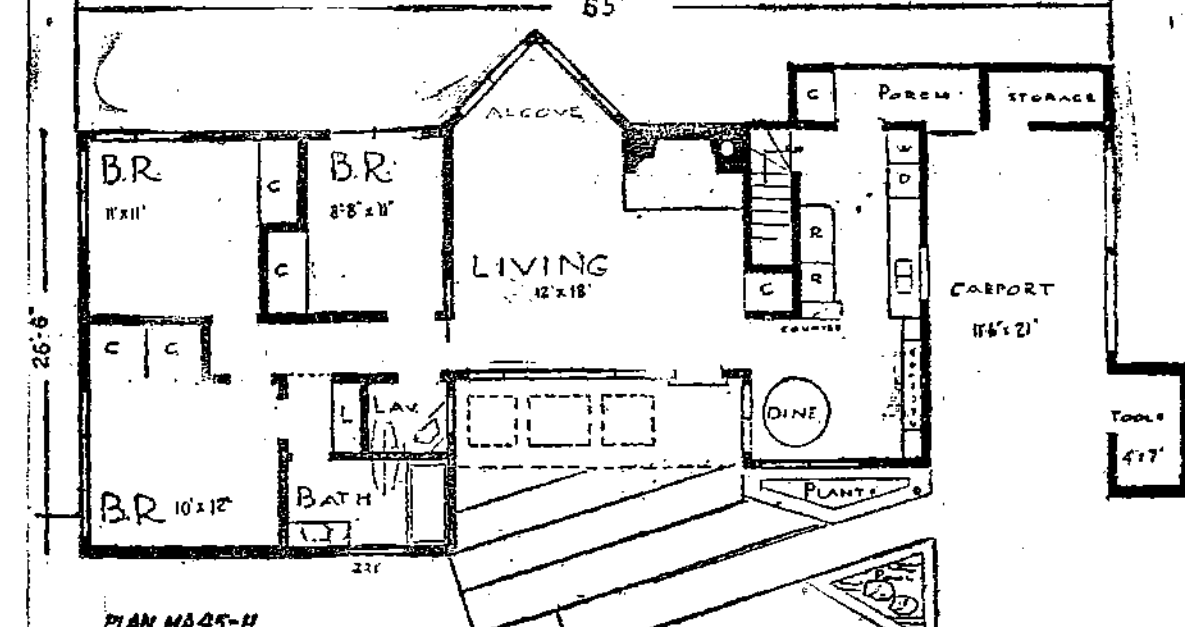

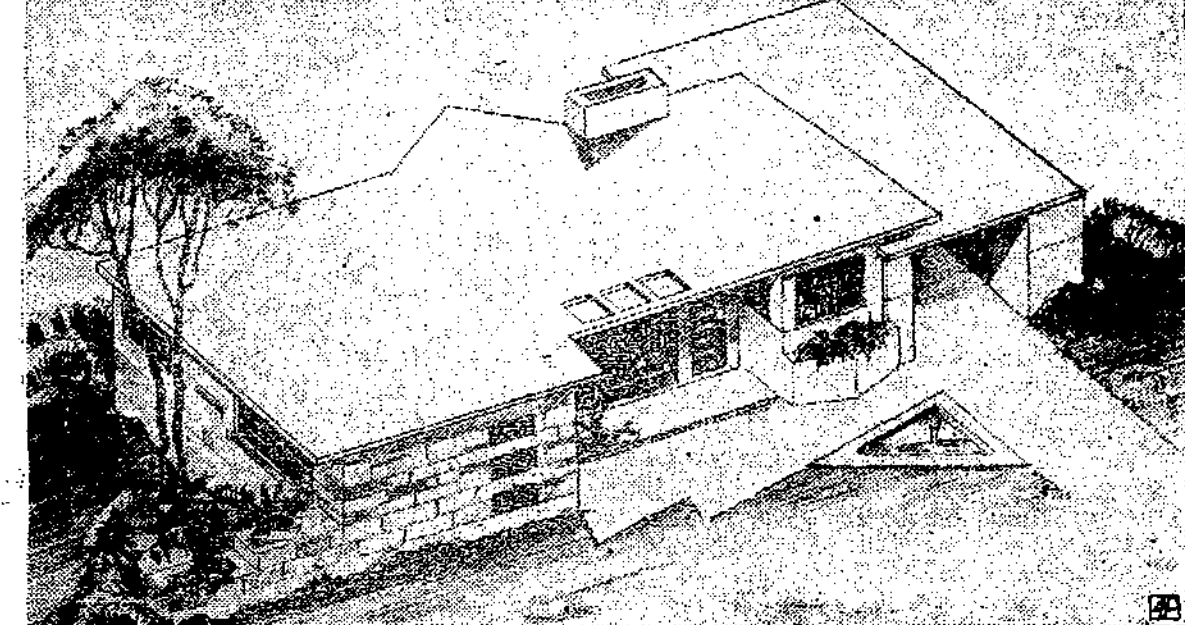

Thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Collin

THE COMFORTS OF HOME—Camping out can be almost as comfortable as home with the aid of this recently introduced camper's outfit. Five minutes of a easy handling converts a compact, aluminum case into a camper's tent, complete with table chairs, cot, stove with bottled gas—even a kitchen sink with running water. The carrying case, top photo, rides only ten inches above a special rack, which can be fitted to any kind of automobile. To set up housekeeping, the camper pulls the case, which rolls off its tracks and down to the ground to stand upright, serving as one side of the tent. Then the camper opens a door to find a rubber tent with telescoped supports, plus the other equipment. When the tent is set up, bottom photo, on the telescoping poles, it gives campers an 8 x 13 room, 8 feet high, with screened windows. The tent is made of rot and mildew-proof Fibertin. Entire outfit retails at $695.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

THIS CONTEMPORARY HOME, designed on one level, has five rooms and 1 1/2 baths. There are 1,320 square feet in the living area. The house has a full basement. The plan, HA45-H, is by Architect Paul T. Haagen, 360 North Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Ill.

New Addition Received At the Baltimore Zoo

BALTIMORE, (AP)—The Baltimore Zoo has a new—and very long—arrival from south-west Asia, where he made his living munching on deer, pigs, chickens and the like.

He is a young reticulated python snake measuring 13 1/2 feet. So far the python has not made himself at home.

"We are having trouble feeding him," said reptile director Frank Groves. He said the only solution has been to force-feed the snake once a week, not an easy task.

Judge Has Plan for a Consolidated Court

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Judge Henry Ellenbogen has proposed a plan that would eliminate Allegheny County Court and replace it with a consolidated court. The unified court would have a maximum of 26 judges, four more than are now sitting.

Judge Ellenbogen submitted his proposal Thursday to the Joint State Government Commission in Harrisburg. He said it would eliminate backlogs of cases.

Steel Official Insists Price Increase Needed

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Increases in steel prices are needed to offset costs arising from the general steel wage increase of July 1, says

E. J. Hanley, president of Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp.

The statement was made Thursday as second quarter earnings of the firm were released. The company reported earnings of $646,067 or 17 cents per share in the second quarter on sales of $48,780,365. This compared to earnings of $2,951,427 and 77 cents a share on sales of $72,415,439 in the second quarter of 1957.

Stork Visits Mother At Busy Intersection

PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—Mrs. Jennie Fields, 23, gave birth to a girl in the front seat of her car plumb in the middle of a busy intersection Thursday night.

Her husband slammed on the brakes when she said her time had come.

Police halted all traffic, and four of them assisted at the birth. Cars were held up for more than half an hour.

Mother and daughter were later taken to Paterson General Hospital, where both were reported doing fine.

KILLED IN CRASH—LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A car swerved off the New Holland Pike 10 miles northeast of Lancaster today, rammed a pole, upset and caught fire, killing one man and injuring two others.

The man who lost his life was Cardone Crespo, 36, of Lancaster.

Franklin Pierce was U. S. president when the Republican party was founded at a meeting in Ripon, Wis., Feb. 28, 1854.

forced to close by high water. Scores of bridges were washed out in Mercer County during the three-day siege. Numerous roads were closed in both Mercer and Lawrence counties.

No deaths were reported due to the floods in either Mercer or Lawrence County, but a four-month old girl was swept from her father's arms Tuesday in flash flooding near Raymilton in Venango County.

All that remained today was a massive cleanup job. Streets and houses near the river were coated with mud and debris.

Crowds Hoot

Directly in front of the embassy, about 200 Soviet militiamen, many of them on horses, formed a solid line, two deep. They pushed early arrivals to the opposite side of the street but permitted organized columns of demonstrators through their lines, right up in front of the embassy windows.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, Jr., was in his ninth floor office when the demonstration started.

U. S. Marines attached to the embassy staff chained and padlocked the embassy gate at the start of the demonstration. The crowd jeered and booed them.

Earlier, a handful of demonstrators assembled outside the British Embassy and handed Ambassador Sir Patrick Reilly a petition protesting the landing of British forces in Jordan.

Reilly talked to them for about 20 minutes, telling them U. S. and British forces were invited into Lebanon and Jordan by legitimate governments. He told them there was no reason for war and added that they had been ill-informed.

It was the biggest demonstration in Moscow since the victory celebration of World War II. Lower-floor windows of the embassy were quickly smashed, and as projectiles continued to hit the front of the building glass was smashed on the floors above.

Those in the crowd carried placards saying "Shame on American Democracy," "U. S. Gangsters," "Hands Off Lebanon" and "Tar and Feathers for Dulles."

Bottles of ink were brought into play and the front of the embassy soon was streaming blue and green.

The crowd repeatedly surged toward the front door of the embassy. Most of them were pushed back by the militiamen, who did not try to stop the barrage of stones and ink bottles.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, Jr., had ordered all embassy employees to stay well away from the front of the building and there were no reports of any Americans being injured.

As the demonstration raged on into the evening, Thompson had made no formal protest to the Soviet government but it was considered certain he would do so later.

The crowd seemed to be getting more and more out of hand as the evening wore on.

"We should have bricks," one youth was heard yelling.

Trio Gets $70,000 in Cleveland Bank Holdup

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three men garbed alike in tan overalls and stocking masks forced the manager of an East Side branch bank to clean out a reserve vault shortly before the bank's opening time today. The loot was estimated at $70,000.

Two women tellers, coming into the bank together, saw one of the men standing guard at the door. Letting out simultaneous screams, they ran next door to a grocery, where the manager called police.

But the robbers, armed with pistols, fled in a bank official's car which was found abandoned a half hour later.

Emerging from bankruptcy court after declaring debts of $33,600 and assets of only $560, she said Thursday night she plans to concentrate on flying, auto racing and playing the piano.

Miss Cowell said she has declined more than 400 proposals of marriage and a $2,800 offer to appear in a freak show.

Arab Republic, the Middle East's prime exponent of Arab nationalism, for the return of foreign troops to their country.

The United States backed up the 2,000 British troops with a flight of more than 50 Navy jets. He planes roared over the Jordan valley for more than an hour "to let it be known they were there," as a Pentagon spokesman put it.

Speaker Abdel Osseyran led the opposition in the Lebanese Parliament to the American landing, charging the U. S. action infringed on the nation's independence and sovereignty. Osseyran said he planned a special session of Parliament to consider complaints from normally pro-Western members against the U. S. intervention.

Such a debate could seriously embarrass the United States, which said it sent in the Marines at the invitation of President Camille Chamoun to guard Lebanon's independence and safeguard U. S. interests.

Emile Bustani, a pro-Western deputy on the Foreign Affairs Committee, said he could find only 26 members of the 66-man Parliament who supported Chamoun's request for troops.

The arrival of the Marines put a temporary damper on the rebel fighting against Chamoun, which he charges had been aided by Nasser's U. A. R.

The rebels have vowed to fight the landings, but they were courteous and cordial to two Marines who got lost and wandered into the sector of Beirut they hold Thursday.

Sgt. Raymond M. Garren of Natick, Pa., and Pfc. James J. Ward, a Briton from Northern Ireland who joined the Marines in the United States last year, were stopped by pistol-waving rebels and

TREASURER'S SALE OF SEATED LANDS FOR TAXES FOR THE YEAR OF 1956

In compliance with and by virtue of the authority vested in me, the several acts of assembly, and specifically by the act approved June 20, 1939, P.L. 498 and other amendatory acts, authorizing and empowering the county treasurer to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes levied by authority of any county, borough, town, township, school district and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid and fixing penalties, etc., I will sell at public sale the following properties as hereinafter set forth.

The purpose of said sale is to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs thereon as the taxes are returned for the year 1956. Said sale will be held in Court Room 2 at the Court House in the Borough of Warren, Warren County, Pennsylvania on MONDAY, AUGUST 4, 1958 AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M. EDST.

Terms of Sale: As soon as property is struck down, payment of the amount of purchase money, or such part thereof as is necessary to pay all taxes, penalties, interest and costs in such case, will be required from the purchaser. In event said amount is not paid forthwith after the property is struck down the sale will be void and the property immediately offered for sale again by the Treasurer. No bid will be accepted for less than taxes, penalties, interest and costs.

If a bid is in excess of said amount the purchaser will be required to make and execute to said Treasurer for use of the persons entitled a bond for the surplus money that may remain after satisfying and paying all the taxes and costs as aforesaid.

To all persons, owners or reputed owners of property, tenants or any claiming an interest in the following described lots or tracts of land: You are hereby notified that your property situated in the borough or township as hereinafter described has been returned for non-payment of taxes for the year designated and unless such taxes and costs are paid on or before Monday, the 4th day of August, 1958, at ten o'clock A. M. Eastern Daylight Saving Time of said day, the said premises will be sold as above set forth.

Late Inning Thrillers Are Soda and Mineral Whips Struthers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The names are different and some of the finesses may be lacking, but San Francisco has revived those late-inning thrillers that were such a big hit for the Giants in '51 and '54, their last pennant years.

The Giants, hanging in there, half a game behind Milwaukee in the National League race, have won 16 games in the last inning. That's a third of their 47 victories. On their current home stand, they've won 9 of 12, winning 6 by one run and 5 of those with ninth-inning rallies.

They beat Philadelphia 8-7 with three in the ninth Thursday. Two came in on Orlando Cepeda's double, but the clincher came home on a bases-loaded wild pitch. Milwaukee stayed a wank ahead of the Giants by giving the skidding St. Louis Cardinals another shove, 8-7, Cincinnati side-tracked the third-place Chicago Cubs 3-2. Los Angeles hammered Pittsburgh 5-3.

The Giants, who stand 15-17 in one-run decisions, got rolling after the Phils broke a 5-5 tie with two runs in the ninth off reliever Don Johnson, called back to the majors from Toronto the night before. The Phils' ace reliever Dick Farrell, now 6-3, lost his second to the Giants with a couple of walks that Cepeda converted into runs, two more that loaded the bases and then an errant 1-2 pitch to pinch-hitter Hank Sauer.

The Braves won their fourth in a row despite Stan Musial's two home runs, which scored five and pushed him past Lou Gehrig into the No. 2 spot behind Babe Ruth in the all-time extra-base hit list. Del Crandall and Wes Covington homered for the Braves, who beat reliever Jim Brosnan (7-7) on Mel Roach's single in the seventh. Lew Burdette (9-7), working in relief, blanked the Cards on three hits for five innings.

The Redlegs, who had lost seven in a row in a plunge to seventh place, scored two on Frank Robinson's 11th homer, then got the winner on Roy McMillan's single, an error and an infield out. Joe hit pitching job. Dave Hillman (2-3) lost it.

The Dodgers made it on homers by Gino Cimoli, Don Zimmer and Gil Hodges that scored all but one of their runs. Rookie Stan Williams won his sixth, but needed relief help after Hank Foiles' homer ended his shutout string at 19 innings in the seventh and Bob Clemente belted a two-run homer in the eighth. Rookie George Witt (2-2) lost it.

Marlin-Rockwell Moves Three Ahead of Ludlow

Marlin-Rockwell secured their 11th win in 12 Intercity League starts last evening as they moved three games in front of second place Ludlow Wildcats. High school pitcher Denny Swan set veteran James-town Bombers down with three scattered hits.

After getting away to a faulty start in the early cantos, both defensive cordons came up with sparkling play. Bombers completing two double plays and the Rollers one.

Joe Davis' sacrifice fly to enter fielder Art Asquith in the sixth sent Jack Fulford home from third with the winning run.

Bombers took a 1-0 lead in the last of the first, Rollers grabbing a 2-1 command in the second. Bombers knotted the count in the fourth.

League president Joe Nagle announced changes in the schedule. Art Metal and Dunkirk Koch's will meet in Municipal Stadium Monday night, originally slated for Wednesday night, will be staged Tuesday and rained-out June 5 game of Art Metal and Dunkirk has been reset for Wednesday.

McLish Pitches Indians to 8-3 Victory Over Senators

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

If it hadn't been for Herb Score's arm trouble, the Cleveland Indians might, as Manager Joe Gordon contends, be second in the American League race.

As is, if it weren't for a guy with the improbable name of Calvin Coolidge McLish, the Indians would be dead last.

They're seventh now, only two games ahead of Washington. They've won only 7 of their last 15, and McLish was the winning pitcher in 5. And they've won but 3 of their last 10, with McLish, a 32-year-old right-hander who traveled the National League for years, bagging all three.

He won his fifth in a row Thursday night, beating Washington 8-3 with the home run help of Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso for an 8-5 record.

Scanlon Is Booked For a First Main In Madison Square

NEW YORK (AP)—Irish fist fighters are few and far between these days. No John L. Sullivan, Mickey Walker or Jimmy McLarnin in the lot. Perhaps the best to come along in recent years is Bobby Scanlon, a handsome young lightweight who fights his first main event in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Scanlon, only 22, never has lost a bout. He has won 28 and fought one draw in 29 professional starts. The draw was back in his days as a four-round prelim boy and he evened the score with his opponent, Frankie Madison, next time they met.

Gale Kerwin, the gabby Canadian who tells you "I'm quite a puncher" is Scanlon's opponent in the 10-round Garden match. There will be the usual network NBC radio and television coverage.

Kerwin has a 27-6-1 record for 34 starts. He has six knockouts and was stopped once.

Musial Has Couple Home Runs But His Team Loses 8-7

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "As Stan Musial goes, so go the St. Louis Cardinals" has become a familiar slogan over the years, but it couldn't be more wrong this season.

The 37-year-old seven-time batting champion clubbed two home runs and a single good for five RBIs Thursday, but the Cardinals lost to Milwaukee, 8-7.

Musial's 15th and 16th homers gave him a career total of 1,191 extra base hits, second only to Babe Ruth in baseball history. Stan moved past Lou Gehrig but will need at least two more good seasons to catch Ruth, who had 1,356 extra base hits in his career.

The game was the 11th defeat in the past 15 games for the Cards, but during that stretch Musial has batted a sizzling .458, raising his National League leading average to .370.

The Cardinals lost 14 of their first 17 games this season, although Musial batted an incredible .529.

National League Debut Flop for Pitcher Johnson

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Don Johnson, a much-traveled pitcher, finally made it to the National League.

The big right-hander (6-2, 200 pounds) in 12 years of baseball has played in five leagues — American Assn., American, Pacific Coast, International and now the National.

His record reads like a travel log: Kansas City, New York Yankees, Portland, Ore., Sacramento, Calif., Washington, St.

Louis Browns, Chicago White Sox, Baltimore and Toronto. There was a two-year Army stretch in there, too.

Now he's a San Francisco Giant and the way they're going Johnson figures he might be on his second World Series club. He was with the Yankees in 1947 when they won the Series.

Johnson's National League debut Thursday was a flop. With the score tied 5-3, he came on in the ninth against Philadelphia. First batter Solly Hemus doubled. Four batters later Philadelphia had two runs on a walk and two more singles. Johnson retired only one batter.

Giant reliever Marv Grissom got out the side and the Giants bounced back to win 8-7.

Manager Bill Rigney intends to use Johnson as a reliever.

Finsterwald Plays Like Winner in P.G.A. Tourney

By HUGH FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Dow Finsterwald, never known as a pugnacious young man or as an aggressive golfer, is acting as if he's ready to take on the entire Hebert family in a PGA return match. It could turn out to be a lively tussle-but Dow has to give away a lot of weight.

Finsterwald was runner-up last year in the final match play PGA championship. He took a 3 and 2 defeat from Lionel Hebert, a long-hitting 200-pounder, in the final match. And the happiest man in the place when Liney came through in a major championship was his older and more famous brother Jay.

Finsterwald didn't exactly have revenge in mind yesterday when he beat out both Lionel and Jay Hebert for the lead in the opening round of the first medal play PGA championship. But it must have given him a rather pleasant feeling.

Iron Man Sweet Still Undefeated; Betts Wins Again

Betts Machine Shop Black Knights won their second game in as many starts as they downed Youngsville Nat'l Bank aggregation 16-6 in a City Softball game on Wilder Field last evening.

Gene Sweet pulled the "iron man" stunt as he pitched his second complete game in two days, having defeated Nino's Wednesday. The strong right hander still remains the only undefeated pitcher in the League with his perfect 11-0 record.

Hit parade was led by Sid Cummings for Betts as the big third baseman stroked four of the 10-jump total.

Betts jumped to a quick 3-0 lead in the opening stanza, with Ned Bartholomew's double driving in two of these. Bankers got two of these back in their half on two walks and a double by Brown.

Black Knights scored one and three in the third with singles by Sid Cummings and Rico Bonavita. Youngsville kept battling back with a four-run cluster in the third on Bruce May's double and Jim Spear's single. Sweet tightened up to pitch shutout ball rest of the way.

Betts was scoring in every inning. A single by Bob Schenck and a triple by Bud Berdine produced two runs in the fifth, and a double by Bill Massa and Pete Molinaro's single garnered two more in the sixth. Massa then tripled in the seventh to notch two more markers. Berdine belted a long homer to center field in the ninth.

Next League competition is Monday when Soda Mineral and Nino's Restaurant clash at State Hospital, while Youngsville Nat'l and Betts battle it out on West Side diamond.

Earl Close's 5-year-old Derby, N. Y. mare, winner of 4 out of her last 7 starts and boasting a new record of 2:03-4/5 taken July 5, will leave directly inside Howard Landers with Beowulf, nosed out in their most recent clash. Beowulf, also a local horse owned by Philip Davis of Buffalo, also has recorded a 2:03-4/5 mile this season. The fastest record in this 6-horse field is owned by Newport Duke whose 2:02-4/5 victory in June has been followed by 2 defeats as favorite. Bruce Nickells, the successful young driver under contract to the Newport Stock Farm, will score from third post with Newport Duke, a 4-year-old.

BURGESS RICE SINKS HOLE-IN-1
Burgess William E. Rice, stroking his way around Conewango Valley golf course with a six iron Thursday afternoon, sunk his first hole-in-one. The Burgess took advantage of a high tee at the base of the hill on seven and stroked his way to fame over the 135-yard fairway. It was his first hole-in-one in 38 years. Attesting to the momentary triumph were Skip Morne, Bob Blair and Jack Blair. The Burgess finished with an incredible 41.

Speaking of Sports

Johnny Schatve, former Erie second baseman, now with Chattanooga of Southern Association, is pictured in this week's Sporting News in two unusual photos. In both shots Schatve is shown sliding into second base as second baseman Shep Frazier of Memphis throws to first to complete a double play.

Conneaut's Mike Blazek, who rolled a 300 game in the ABC in 1938, is pictured in July issue of Bowling Magazine, Mike is celebrating the 20th anniversary of his perfect game, fifth rolled in ABC.

PALS fighters and boys from Martin Recreation Center, currently in the center of a feud-ing match between their hand- ible, will stage six boxing exhibitions at Soldiers and Sailors Home July 29. Babe Harking is in charge of the program for entertainment of members of the home.

Oil City has obtained new head football and football coaches. Ronald Younker, former assistant grid coach at Windbar High, has been named Oiler grid mentor, succeeding John Kaufman, current Oil City athletic director. Thomas Skinner, formerly at Union Township, has been appointed head cage mentor, succeeding H. L. (Bud) Wells. Younkers is a graduate of Penn State while Skinner matriculated at Geneva College. Phil Wallace, former assistant of track coach Kaufman, has been named head coach of that sport.

Salamanca Square Circle Archery Club will host a Western New York Field Archery Association shoot Sunday at its range in Hardscrabble Hollow. Between 150 and 200 archers from Western New York and Northwestern Pennsylvania are expected to compete for medals in various events.

Annual Southwestern New York - Northwestern Pennsylvania women's sectional golf tournament arrangements are completed for the tournament at Bradford Pennhills Country club Tuesday, July 22 through Friday, July 25. The tourney will consist of 54 holes medal play with 18 holes each day. All contestants will get into action for the first 36 holes.

Olmedo Slams His Way to the Semi-Finals at Chicago

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN, Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Keep your eye on Peruvian Alejandro Olmedo.

Perry T. Jones, non-playing captain of the U. S. Davis Cup team is.

Olmedo, 22, a business administration student in the University of Southern California, has slammed his way to the quarter-finals of the National Clay Courts tennis tournament.

The springy-wristed youth from Arequipa, Peru, won the National Intercollegiate title this year. Last Monday he took the Western crown in Indianapolis.

Olmedo hasn't been home in five years and qualifies for the U. S. Davis Cup squad because he has established a three-year residence in this country.

Olmedo polished off Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., Thursday, 6-0, 6-1.

Erie Boxing Feud Challenge Is Answered

Erie boxing feud between PALS amateur pugilists and Martin Recreation Center's fistcuffers exploded today as Mike Brady answered the challenge thrown at him by Frank Vicary.

Gene Cuneo, Sports Editor of Erie Times-News, first announced Sunday that Frank Vicary, who manages boxers for Father Thomas Geddes and Mike Brady, manager of Police Athletic League fighters, were on opposite sides concerning their boys and their abilities.

Today Gene reported that Brady, with whom Rocky Gerarde had been training since May, answered the challenge from Vicary and Martin Recreation boxers.

"We'll take 'em all—one at a time," said Brady. "First we'll let Johnny Bizzaro of our stable meet Frank's son Connie, but only on one condition. He's got to come in at 137 pounds—not one ounce over. Naturally we're not going to have our boys go way out of their weight—in fact the state commission won't allow it."

"But Frank says Connie can come in at that weight and we're willing for Bizzaro to fight him."

If the bout goes through it probably will be held on the Aug. 2 outdoor card. It also would mark the second time Connie has been challenged. Don Wild tested him and Vicary scored an exciting victory.

In Sunday's announcement, Frank Vicary reported that, "I'm willing to take on Elbaum or Brady."

Spitball Charges Again Directed Toward Burdette

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The somewhat tarnished fortunes of the Milwaukee Braves, fighting each day to remain first in the National League, may be on the upswing — the opposition is again tossing spit ball charges at Lew Burdette.

"He throws it all the time," charged Cardinal Manager Fred Hutchinson Thursday after the three-game series with St. Louis and their fourth straight triumph. The decision also kept the Braves a half game in front of San Francisco's Giants.

Burdette claimed the latest victory with a neat three-hit, five-inning relief performance, and Hutchinson continued the discussion of the right-hander's pitching saying: "There's nothing you can do about it. He's got a clean bill of health from the league President Warren Giles and the umpires."

"He threw a lot of them today." The first big protest about Burdette's pitching came from the Dodgers as the Braves took 2 out of 3 in Los Angeles last week.

National League Debut Flop for Pitcher Johnson

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Don Johnson, a much-traveled pitcher, finally made it to the National League.

The big right-hander (6-2, 200 pounds) in 12 years of baseball has played in five leagues — American Assn., American, Pacific Coast, International and now the National.

His record reads like a travel log: Kansas City, New York Yankees, Portland, Ore., Sacramento, Calif., Washington, St.

Louis Browns, Chicago White Sox, Baltimore and Toronto. There was a two-year Army stretch in there, too.

Now he's a San Francisco Giant and the way they're going Johnson figures he might be on his second World Series club. He was with the Yankees in 1947 when they won the Series.

Johnson's National League debut Thursday was a flop. With the score tied 5-5, he came on in the ninth against Philadelphia. First batter Solly Hemus doubled. Four batters later Philadelphia had two runs on a walk and two more singles. Johnson retired only one batter.

Giant reliever Marv Grissom got out the side and the Giants bounced back to win 8-7.

Manager Bill Rigney intends to use Johnson as a reliever.

Finsterwald Plays Like Winner in P.G.A. Tourney

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Dow Finsterwald, never known as a pugnacious young man or as an aggressive golfer, is acting as if he's ready to take on the entire Hebert family in a PGA return match. It could turn out to be a lively tussle-but Dow has to give away a lot of weight.

Finsterwald was runner-up last year in the final match play PGA championship. He took a 3 and 2 defeat from Lionel Hebert, a long-hitting 200-pounder, in the final match. And the happiest man in the place when Liney came through in a major championship was his older and more famous brother Jay.

Finsterwald didn't exactly have revenge in mind yesterday when he beat out both Lionel and Jay Hebert for the lead in the opening round of the first medal play PGA championship. But it must have given him a rather pleasant feeling.

Iron Man Sweet Still Undefeated; Betts Wins Again

Betts Machine Shop Black Knights won their second game in as many starts as they downed Youngsville Nat'l Bank aggregation 16-6 in a City Softball game on Wilder Field last evening.

Gene Sweet pulled the "iron man" stunt as he pitched his second complete game in two days, having defeated Nino's Wednesday. The strong right hander still remains the only undefeated pitcher in the League with his perfect 11-0 record.

Hit parade was led by Sid Cummings for Betts as the big third baseman stroked four of the 10-binge total.

Betts jumped to a quick 3-0 lead in the opening stanza, with Ned Bartholomew's double driving in two of these. Bankers got two of these back in their half on two walks and a double by Brown.

Black Knights scored one and three in the third with singles by Sid Cummings and Rico Bonavita. Youngsville kept battling back with a four-run cluster in the third on Bruce May's double and Jim Spear's single. Sweet tightened up to pitch shutout ball rest of the way.

Betts was scoring in every inning. A single by Bob Schenck and a triple by Bud Berdine produced two runs in the fifth, and a double by Bill Massa and Pete Molinaro's single garnered two more in the sixth. Massa then tripled in the seventh to notch two more markers. Berdine belted a long homer to center field in the ninth.

Next League competition is Monday when Soda Mineral and Nino's Restaurant clash at State Hospital, while Youngsville Nat'l and Betts battle it out on West Side diamond.

Push-Button Plan
For Doublecheck
On Income Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The time may not be far off when a federal tax agent can push a button and tell immediately which tax returns should be doublechecked.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington mentioned this possibility today in a statement discussing the big workload handled by electronic machines at Internal Revenue Service offices.

In addition to equipment already in use, Harrington said, his agency's planning and research unit is working on new ways to use electronics in processing tax data.

One such project, Harrington said, is aimed at developing an electronic means of identifying quickly "out of line" returns that need further study to determine whether taxpayers have overpaid or underpaid. He said considerable work already has been done on this project.

Harrington said equipment at three service centers is now doing a large part of the bookkeeping chores once handled by most of the nation's 64 district offices.

eration to asking Congress for broad economic controls. After the outbreak of the Korean War, living costs jumped more than 7 per cent in the eight months before controls went into effect. The Truman administration called at first for voluntary restraint, but to little avail.

Republicans were sharply critical of the Democrats at the time for not putting on the brakes sooner. It is a good bet that the present Republican administration, with the advantage of hindsight, would move faster if a similar situation arose.

The landing of U.S. Marines in Lebanon already is having a different kind of effect on the home front.

The impact so far has been political rather than economic. Senate Republican Leader William Knowland of California has noted that Middle East storm clouds have affected the congressional weather vane. He foresees restoration of some House-voted cuts in foreign aid.

Production of Milk And Eggs Sets Record

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Department of Agriculture said Pennsylvania milk and egg production set a new monthly record last month.

Milk production during June totaled 609 million pounds, 1 per cent greater than the output in June, 1957. Egg production reached 294 million for the month, a 7 per cent gain over June, 1957.

For the first six months, the department said, milk production was 3,521,000,000 pounds, 5 per cent above the same period of 1957 and 17 per cent above the 10-year average from 1946 to 1957. Egg production totaled 1,814,000,000 eggs, 2 per cent below the output for the first six months of 1957.
